

Stockholder Communication Policy
Tandem Diabetes Care, Inc.

I. Purpose of Policy

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Tandem Diabetes Care, Inc. (the "Company") believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to provide stockholders and other interested parties the ability to communicate with the Board as a whole, or with one or more individual directors, through an established process for stockholder communication. The Board has adopted this Stockholder Communication Policy (this "Policy") as part of this commitment. The Policy is designed to promote effective communication with stockholders and other interested parties and ensure compliance with applicable laws, rules, regulations and listing standards. The Company also regularly engages in communication with stockholders through its filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, its annual meeting of stockholders, its press releases and other public communications.

The Board has delegated to its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the "Committee") the responsibility of administering this Policy. The Committee may from time to time recommend changes to this Policy. All changes to this Policy must be approved by the Board.

II. Policy

This Policy provides that:

- For a stockholder communication directed to the Board as a whole, stockholders and other interested parties may send such communication to the attention of the Company's General Counsel, to: Tandem Diabetes Care, Inc., Attn: General Counsel, 11045 Roselle St., San Diego, CA 92121.
- For a stockholder communication directed to an individual director in his or her capacity as a member of the Board, stockholders and other interested parties may send such communication to the attention of the Company's General Counsel, to: Tandem Diabetes Care, Inc., Attn: General Counsel, 11045 Roselle St., San Diego, CA 92121, indicating the name of the individual director for whom the communication is intended.

The Company will review all incoming stockholder communications and promptly forward such communications to the director(s) to whom such communications are addressed. The Company will generally not forward communications that are unrelated to the duties and responsibilities of the Board, including communications that the Company determines to be primarily commercial in nature, product complaints or inquires, and materials that are patently offensive or otherwise inappropriate.

Communications from an officer or director of the Company, and proposals submitted by stockholders to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and related communications), will not be viewed as a stockholder communication and should be made in accordance with the Company's Bylaws.

Communications from an employee or agent of the Company will be viewed as a stockholder communication for purposes of this Policy only if such communications are made solely in such employee's or agent's capacity as a stockholder and it is reasonably apparent from the face of the communication that this is the case.
