Mason employer General Revenue Corporation to host job fair from Nov. 16 – 18

MASON, Ohio, Nov. 15, 2016— General Revenue Corporation will host a job fair Wednesday, Nov. 16, through Friday, Nov. 18, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at General Revenue Corporation's office, located at 4660 Duke Drive. The company seeks to fill more than 25 collector positions to join the team.

Celebrating its 35th anniversary this month, General Revenue Corporation was founded as a small business in 1981 by a former University of Cincinnati official and another industry expert. GRC was later acquired by a Fortune 500 company, today known as Navient, the nation's leading loan management, servicing and asset recovery company.

The job fair will offer walk-in interviews with a manager and a chance to tour the facility. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply online at jobs.navient.com. Candidates should also bring their resumes.

"We are thrilled to have this opportunity to expand our team of dedicated employees who strive every day to do the best work that they can do," said Brian Hill, vice president, Navient, and head of the Mason center. "Our open house will allow those interested to meet with potential colleagues and learn more about the company firsthand. We look forward to seeing a great turnout."

Navient's family of asset recovery companies, including GRC, is among the largest and top-performing asset recovery and receivables management operations in the country. Navient employees provide excellent service to state, federal, educational and health care clients as they counsel consumers on successful payment options.

The company offers a benefits package to include competitive wages, incentive programs, paid holidays and vacation, a 401(k) plan as well as health, dental, and life insurance. The ideal candidates should possess strong communication skills, a professional demeanor, confidence and assertiveness, and basic computer skills.
