Conference Call and webcast to be held Monday, April 3 at 4:30pm ET

MENLO PARK, Calif., March 23, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Versartis, Inc. (NASDAQ:VSAR), an endocrine-focused biopharmaceutical company that is developing somavaratan, a novel, long-acting form of recombinant human growth hormone (rhGH) for growth hormone deficiency (GHD), today announced that it will host a conference call and webcast on Monday, April 3, 2017 at 4:30pm ET to review its oral and poster presentations from the Endocrine Society's 99th Annual Meeting & Expo (ENDO 2017), being held April 1-4, 2017 in Orlando, Florida.

Versartis has two oral presentations and four posters on somavaratan scheduled during the ENDO 2017 program, including one late-breaker. (Presentation titles and times can be found in the Company's press release issued on March 2, 2017, located here.) Management will highlight the somavaratan program and new data in pediatric and adult GHD presented during the conference. Dr. Bradley Miller M.D., Ph.D., Associate Professor in the Department of Pediatric Endocrinology at the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital and a study investigator, will recap his ENDO oral presentation featuring new 3-year data from the VERTICAL and VISTA trials and take questions from call participants. Press releases summarizing the data will be issued on April 3, 2017 prior to the call.
