MONI Smart Security Chief Financial Officer Transition To Occur October 9th

DALLAS, Oct. 9, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- MONI Smart Security (Nasdaq: ASCMA), a leading provider in home security alarm monitoring, today announced that Fred Graffam will succeed Mike Meyers as Chief Financial Officer effective Monday, October 9, 2017.

Since announcing his retirement early this year, Meyers stayed on as CFO to make the transition between parties as seamless as possible, and he has worked closely with Graffam to ensure the continued success of MONI. Last July, Graffam was named Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Ascent and its wholly owned subsidiary, MONI, and has since relocated to Dallas to join the company. The ultimate timing of the succession was dictated by the completion of Graffam's responsibilities in his prior role leading Investor Relations and Corporate Development at DigitalGlobe, Inc.
