SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- PayPal Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq:PYPL) today announced that the company intends to use its investor relations website and other online and social media channels, including the company's PayPal Stories Blog, Twitter handle and LinkedIn page, to disclose material non-public information and comply with its disclosure obligations under Regulation FD. The general public, including investors, will find such disclosures included on the following channels:

- PayPal's Investor Relations site: https://investor.paypal-corp.com
- PayPal Stories Blog: https://stories.paypal-corp.com/
- @PayPal \(Twitter\): https://twitter.com/paypal
- PayPal \(LinkedIn\): https://www.linkedin.com/company/paypal

Accordingly, investors should monitor the above channels, in addition to PayPal's press releases, SEC filings and public conference calls and webcasts. These channels may be amended or updated through an SEC filing in the future.

About PayPal

At PayPal (Nasdaq: PYPL), we put people at the center of everything we do. Founded in 1998, we continue to be at the forefront of the digital payments revolution, last year we processed 4 billion payments, of which 1 billion were made on mobile devices. PayPal gives people better ways to connect to their money and to each other, helping them safely access and move their money and offering a choice of how they would like to pay or be paid. With our 169 million active customer accounts, we have created an open and secure payments ecosystem that people and businesses choose to securely transact with each other online, in stores and on mobile devices. PayPal is a truly global payments platform that is available to people in 203 markets, allowing customers to get paid in more than 100 currencies, withdraw funds to their bank accounts in 57 currencies and hold balances in their PayPal accounts in 26 currencies.
