

FERROGLOBE PLC
2016 STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH
THE UK MODERN SLAVERY ACT 2015

Formed in December 2015 as a UK public limited company to effect the business combination of Grupo FerroAtlántica SAU and Globe Specialty Metals, Inc., Ferroglobe PLC (with its subsidiaries, “Ferroglobe” or the “Company”) is one of the world’s largest producers of silicon metal, silicon-based alloys and manganese-based alloys. Additionally, Ferroglobe engages in quartz mining, metallurgical coal mining, and hydropower generation activities. The Company owns manufacturing, mining and/or hydropower assets in Europe, the Americas, Africa and Asia.

In keeping with the Company’s general commitment in its Code of Conduct to compliance with all applicable laws, this statement is made pursuant to the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015. Ferroglobe is currently revising its policies and procedures to ensure that appropriate business, due diligence and disclosure protocols are put in place to identify, minimise and account for breach of human rights risks. Ferroglobe supports the U.N. Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and recognises that modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. The Company is aware that modern slavery may take various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty for the personal or commercial gain of another. To mitigate the risk of unlawful activity or other breaches of its Code of Conduct in its business and supply chains, including any form of slavery activity, the Company has implemented an anonymous whistleblower internet site at www.ethicspoint.com. The Company encourages all persons, including without limitation its employees, contractors and the public at large, to raise concerns at any time about any such issue, including any suspicion of modern slavery, by either reporting through the whistleblower site or by contacting:
