Groupon Announces The Blues Brothers Movie Night at Wrigley Field

Guests to help Groupon attempt to set a second Guinness World Record

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Groupon (NASDAQ: GRPN) (<http://www.groupon.com/>) announces its second Movie Night at Wrigley Field with the iconic Chicago film The Blues Brothers, featured under the stars on Friday, July 6, with tickets available for purchase today. Moviegoers also will help Groupon attempt to set a Guinness World Record for "Most People Wearing Sunglasses in the Dark" with their own pair of souvenir sunglasses received upon arrival, courtesy of Groupon.

On sale at <http://www.groupon.com/deals/july-wrigley-movie-night>, subscribers can choose from the following options (prices include all taxes and fees):

- $20: one ticket for bleacher or field box outfield seating
- $40: one ticket for outfield lawn seating
- $100, one VIP package that includes:
 - One ticket for outfield lawn seating
 - Unlimited food and drink at the Captain Morgan Club from 6:30 — 8:30 p.m.

"We're on a mission to have a great time," said Sean Smyth, VP of Business Development, Groupon. "The Blues Brothers is a classic piece of Chicago's history. We're thrilled to work with Wrigley Field again to give our customers an unforgettable night."

Doors open at 7 p.m. and the movie goes live at 8:30. Film buffs will enjoy the classic adventure flick alongside Jake and Elwood impersonators and will have the opportunity to take photos near the Wrigley Field Marquee. There will also be food and beer at prices discounted from gameday rates.

Last summer, Groupon proudly hosted — and sold out — the first-ever Movie Night at Wrigley Field, with nearly 10,000 local subscribers enjoying the classic film Ferris Bueller's Day Off. That evening, Groupon and guests successfully broke a record for the largest number of people singing "in a round" to the song "Danke Schoen."

Movie Night at Wrigley Field is sponsored by Redbox, Cricket Wireless and Lifeway Kefir. The evening is hosted as part of the larger Camp Groupon event series happening July 6-8, featuring first-class meals and activities from Chicago's favorite Groupon merchants.
