Insulet Appoints Bret Christensen as Chief Commercial Officer

BILLERICA, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Insulet Corporation (NASDAQ: PODD) (Insulet or the Company), the leader in tubeless insulin pump technology with its Omnipod[®] Insulin Management System, today announced the appointment of Bret Christensen as Chief Commercial Officer. Mr. Christensen will run the Company's commercial operations, including sales, marketing, customer care, market access and advocacy.

Mr. Christensen joins Insulet from Myriad Genetics, where he most recently served as General Manager of its Preventive Care business unit.

"I am thrilled to welcome a leader of Bret's caliber to run Insulet's commercial operations," said Shacey Petrovic, President and Chief Operating Officer. "Over the past year, Insulet has achieved considerable growth and we remain focused on further penetrating both the diabetes and drug delivery markets. Bret's extensive commercial expertise will be a tremendous asset as we drive execution of our strategic plan."

"Insulet has a differentiated platform, a significant growth opportunity and a terrific team," commented Mr. Christensen. "I am excited to join at a time when the company is rapidly expanding and making such great strides in product innovation."

About Mr. Christensen:

Mr. Christensen brings more than 20 years of commercial experience to Insulet. He joins the Company from Myriad Genetics, where he served as General Manager of Preventive Care, the company's largest business unit, leading a team of more than 350 employees across all commercial functions. Prior to Myriad Genetics, Mr. Christensen held a series of executive positions at Hologic Corporation, including Vice President of Sales and Marketing of its Gynecologic Surgical Products division. Prior to Hologic, he led key market development and sales teams at Cytoc Corporation. Mr. Christensen earned a B.S. in Business Management from Utah Valley University and received an MBA from the University of Utah.
