Matrix Service Company Announces Resolution on the Power Generation Project in the Electrical Infrastructure Segment

Financial outcome expected to be as forecasted during the Company's FY 2017, Q3 Earnings Call

TULSA, Okla., July 27, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Matrix Service Company (Nasdaq:MTRX) announced today that its subsidiary, Matrix NAC, has reached agreement with its customer, TransCanada, to modify the execution strategy on a key project in the Electrical Infrastructure segment.

"TransCanada and Matrix NAC have worked diligently to modify the project execution strategy to assure the best possible schedule, most efficient cost outcome, and the highest levels of safety and quality," said Matrix Service Company President and CEO, John R. Hewitt. "While Matrix NAC's scope of work will be reduced as a result of this agreement, the forecasted financial outcome of the project is not expected to negatively impact the future earnings performance of the company."
