Frontier Communications Work Schedules, Service Order Impacts from Hurricane Irma in the Tampa Bay Area

TAMPA, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Frontier Communications operations teams will wrap up work on Saturday and remove all vehicles from area roads as soon as possible. Field employees will be instructed to return their vehicles after work is completed and go home.

Some essential functions outside of the Tampa Bay area will continue to be available for customers - reporting service troubles to Frontier for example. That number to call is 1-800-921-8101. It is also available in Español at 1-800-921-8103. However, no work will be dispatched on Saturday or Sunday. Monday is to be determined based on the severity of the storm at that point and emergency assessments.

A dedicated web site has been established for customers to access - www.frontier.com/Irma. Customers can report issues as well as access the latest news from Frontier and other storm-related information.

Frontier reminds area residents that restoration efforts after Irma has passed will begin once respective emergency management organizations in Hillsborough, Pinellas, Pasco, Polk, Manatee and Sarasota Counties give the "all clear" that it is safe to resume working. At that time, Frontier will follow standard priorities for service restorations - public safety and health; business customers; and residential customers.
