DubLi.com Names rbb Public Relations Agency of Record

BOCA RATON, FL – June 21, 2012 – DubLi.com, a wholly-owned subsidiary of MediaNet Group Technologies, Inc. (OTCQB: MEDG) and the world's most comprehensive online shopping and entertainment community, announced today that it has named rbb Public Relations, a national marketing public relations firm that champions breakout brands, its agency of record. rbb has been hired to manage a strategic public relations, marketing and promotions campaign for DubLi.com targeting consumer audiences in the United States and globally.

"Appointing rbb as our PR agency of record solidifies our 2012 strategy to educate consumers on the unique value proposition offered by the DubLi.com platform, and to acquire new customers and build a stronger, positive identity with the online community," said Michael Hansen, founder, president and chief executive officer of DubLi. "After reviewing several agencies, we felt that rbb's experience, expertise and aggressive approach to helping brands break out was the perfect fit for DubLi's marketing and communications needs. We are eager to begin our partnership with rbb to allow us to better tell and share the DubLi.com story with the world."

DubLi's platform provides customers with their own personalized shopping and entertainment experience. For free, customers can search millions of their favorite products and services, compare prices, and then purchase from the world's leading brand name merchants earning cash back on every purchase. Customers also have unlimited free access to one of the world's most extensive online entertainment portals, including music, videos games and more.

"With four web portals designed to better serve global customers, DubLi.com is a dynamic brand that we will help position as a rising star in the online shopping and entertainment space," said Lisa Ross, president of rbb Public Relations. "rbb looks forward to enhancing customer mindshare that fuels DubLi's growth by highlighting its commitment to making life easier for their audience through customizable online shopping and entertainment."
