Mitek Board Member, Kenneth Denman Named One of 2017's "Most Influential Black Corporate Directors" by Savoy Magazine

SAN DIEGO and LONDON, Oct. 31, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Mitek (NASDAQ:MITK) (www.miteksystems.com), a global leader in mobile capture and identity verification software solutions, today announced that Board of Directors member, Kenneth Denman has been named one of 2017's Most Influential Black Corporate Directors by Savoy Magazine.

"Our board features some of the most experienced and innovative leaders in the business world and we'd like to congratulate Ken on his most recent recognition," said James DeBello, Chairman and CEO, Mitek. "Ken's expertise in artificial intelligence and his background in successfully leading technology companies are just some of the attributes that make him an inspiring leader, valuable Mitek board member and influential executive."

Denman joined Mitek's Board of Directors in December 2016. He was previously the President and Chief Executive Officer of Emotient, Inc. and has also held CEO positions at Openwave Systems, Inc. and iPass, Inc. Denman was appointed to the Edward V. Fritzky Endowed Chair in Leadership at the University of Washington's Foster School of Business as a Visiting Professor, and is also a Board member of both the UW Foster School of Business and the UW Foundation. In addition to serving on Mitek's Board, Denman is a member of the Board of Directors of Costco Wholesale (COST), Motorola Solutions (MSI) and LendingClub (LC), and he is a Venture Partner at Sway Ventures.
