

September 11, 2017

American Water's Vallejo to Participate in Water Infrastructure Finance Symposium

VOORHEES, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- American Water (NYSE: AWK), the nation's largest publicly traded water and wastewater utility company, today announced Edward Vallejo, vice president, Investor Relations, will participate in the Water Infrastructure Finance Symposium: Managing Resources in a Fluid Environment, hosted by Moody's Investor Services and the American Water Works Association on Sept. 13 in New York City.

Vallejo will participate on a panel that will focus on what a sustainable utility looks like from a number of perspectives including rate management, debt financing, consumer transparency and investor interest. The panelists will outline best practices, and examine how a utility's approach to Environmental, Sustainability & Governance (ESG) investing has evolved.

With a history dating back to 1886, American Water is the largest and most geographically diverse U.S. publicly-traded water and wastewater utility company. The company employs more than 6,800 dedicated professionals who provide regulated and market-based drinking water, wastewater and other related services to an estimated 15 million people in 47 states and Ontario, Canada. More information can be found by visiting www.amwater.com.

Click here to subscribe to Mobile Alerts for American Water.

View source version on businesswire.com: <http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20170911005851/en/>

American Water
Joseph Szafran
External Affairs Manager
856-309-4690
joseph.szafran@amwater.com

Source: American Water

News Provided by Acquire Media