PENNSYLVANIA AMERICAN WATER NAMES NEW YARDLEY OPERATIONS SENIOR SUPERVISOR

YARDLEY, Pa. (June 26, 2016) – Pennsylvania American Water announced today that Jamie Yakes has been named to the position of senior supervisor of the company’s Yardley District, which provides water service to Yardley Borough, Lower Makefield Township and Falls Township.

In his new position, Yakes is responsible for overseeing the company’s production and field operations, serving approximately 12,000 local customers. Prior to joining Pennsylvania American Water, he served as facilities and operations manager at SGS Accutest Laboratories.

A resident of Jackson, New Jersey, Yakes earned a Master of Business Administration from Georgian Court University, Lakewood, New Jersey, and a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry from Richard Stockton College, Pomona, New Jersey.

Pennsylvania American Water, a subsidiary of American Water (NYSE: AWK), is the largest investor-owned water utility in the state, providing high-quality and reliable water and/or wastewater services to approximately 2.3 million people. With a history dating back to 1886, American Water is the largest and most geographically diverse U.S. publicly-traded water and wastewater utility company. The company employs more than 6,800 dedicated professionals who provide regulated and market-based drinking water, wastewater and other related services to an estimated 15 million people in 47 states and Ontario, Canada.
