

Charter of the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors

I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

This Charter specifies the scope of the responsibilities of the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Vericel Corporation (the “Company”) and the manner in which those responsibilities shall be performed, including its structure, processes and membership requirements.

The primary responsibilities of the Committee are to (i) identify, review and evaluate individuals qualified to become Board members; (ii) recommend nominees to the Board and to each committee of the Board; (iii) develop and recommend to the Board criteria for selecting qualified director candidates (including an assessment of any minimum qualifications a nominee for the Board should possess and any specific qualities or skills the Committee believes are necessary for one or more directors to possess); (iv) recommend corporate governance principles, codes of conduct and compliance mechanisms applicable to the Company, and monitor compliance with them, and (v) assist the Board in its annual reviews of the performance of the Board, and each committee.

II. ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors, each of whom shall meet the independence requirements established by the requirements established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and the Nasdaq listing standards.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed, and may be removed or replaced, by the Board. Unless the Board elects a chairperson, the members of the Committee may designate a chairperson by majority vote of the full Committee membership. The Committee may delegate duties or responsibilities to subcommittees or to one member of the Committee. A majority of the members shall represent a quorum of the Committee, and any action approved by at least a majority of the members shall represent the valid action of the Committee.

The Committee shall have the authority to obtain such advice or assistance as it deems necessary, including from consultants, legal counsel, accounting or other advisors as needed to perform its duties hereunder, and to determine the terms, costs and fees for such engagements. Without limitation, the Committee shall have sole authority to retain or terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates and to determine and approve the terms, costs and fees for such engagements. The fees and costs of any consultant or advisor engaged by the Committee to perform its duties hereunder shall be borne by the Company.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet from time to time, as it deems necessary to fulfill its responsibilities hereunder, and may meet with management and directors at any time it deems appropriate to discuss any matters before the Committee. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of holding a meeting and the Committee may act by a vote of a majority of members present at such meeting. In lieu of a meeting, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent. The Committee shall record minutes of the proceedings of all meetings.

IV. COMMITTEE AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties hereunder, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall:
