

Corporate Governance Guidelines

(As Amended February 19, 2010)

BAKER HUGHES INCORPORATED CORPORATE GOVERNANCE GUIDELINES

These Baker Hughes Incorporated Corporate Governance Guidelines are established by the Board of Directors ("Board") as the principles for conduct of the Company's business affairs to benefit its stockholders.

Board

The responsibility of the members of the Board is to exercise their business judgment to act in what they reasonably believe to be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders. In addition to the Board's general oversight of management's performance of its responsibilities, the principal functions of the Board acting directly or through its Committees (as defined in "Committees of the Board") include:

- Providing effective oversight of the governance of the affairs of the Company in order to maximize long-term benefit to the stockholders
- Maintaining a viable succession plan for the office of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company and other members of senior management
- Evaluating the performance of the Board and identifying and recruiting new members for the Board
- Reviewing and approving long-term business plans
- Appointing, approving the compensation and overseeing the work of the independent registered public accounting firms
- Overseeing certain compliance related issues, including accounting, internal audit, disclosure controls and internal controls, enterprise risk management and environmental policies
- Reviewing quarterly earnings release and quarterly and annual financial statements to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC")
- Evaluating and setting the compensation of the CEO and other members of senior management
- Adopting an appropriate governance policy

Selection and Qualification of Directors - The Governance Committee will annually assess the needs of the Company and the Board in order to recommend to the Board the director candidates who will further the goals of the Company in representing the long-term interests of the stockholders. In particular, the Governance Committee will assess the special skills, expertise and backgrounds relevant to the Company's business to determine whether or not a candidate has the character traits and breadth of business knowledge to make him or her an effective director, based on previously established criteria, as described in Exhibit A, "Guidelines for Membership on the Board of Directors". The Governance Committee will annually assess the contributions of the directors whose terms expire at the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders and recommend to the Board if they should be nominated for re-election by stockholders. The Board will propose a slate of nominees to the stockholders for election to the Board at the next Annual Meeting, as described in Exhibit B, "Selection Process for New Board of Directors Candidates".

Independence – The Board will be comprised of a majority of directors who qualify as independent non-management directors under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), as described in Exhibit C, "Policy for Director Independence, Audit/Ethics Committee Members and Audit Committee Financial Expert". Annually, the Board will review the relationship that each director has with the Company to determine that the director has no material relationship with the Company, its affiliates or any member of the senior management of the Company, subject to additional qualifications prescribed under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Company will not make any personal loans or extensions of credit to directors or executive officers.

Size and Term of the Board – In accordance with the Company's Bylaws, the Board determines the number of directors on the Board, which currently will consist of not more than 11 directors. In accordance with the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, at each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, directors shall be elected for a term of one year ending on the date of the Annual Meeting of Stockholders following the annual meeting at which the directors were elected and will serve until their successors are elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, retirement, resignation or removal. Stockholders may propose nominees for consideration by the Governance Committee, as described in Exhibit D, "Policy and Submission Procedures for Stockholder Recommended Director Candidates", by submitting within the prescribed time period the name and supporting information to: Chairman, Governance Committee of the Board of Directors, P.O. Box 4740, Houston, Texas 77210-4740 or to the Corporate Secretary, c/o Baker Hughes Incorporated 2929 Allen Parkway, Suite 2100, Houston, Texas 77019-2118 to be properly nominated before the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders, although the Company is not required to include such nominees in its proxy statement. Between such annual meetings, the Board may elect directors to serve until the next annual meeting.

Voting for Directors – Any nominee for director in an uncontested election who receives a "withhold" vote representing a majority of the votes cast for his or her election will be required to submit a letter of resignation to the Governance Committee of the Board of Directors. The Governance Committee will consider all of the relevant facts and circumstances and recommend to the Board of Directors whether or not the resignation should be accepted. For the purposes of this Section, an "uncontested election" shall mean an election in which the number of nominees as of the record date for the meeting at which directors are to be elected does not exceed the number of directors to be elected at such meeting.

Director Orientation and Continuing Education – The Governance Committee will periodically review and recommend to the Board a director orientation program that includes an initial and continuing orientations providing the director with comprehensive information about the Company's business, one-on-one meetings with senior management and other officers of the Company, an overview of the Director's Reference Manual and tours of the Company's operations. The directors will be provided with continuing education materials covering upcoming seminars and conferences.

Independent Advisors – The Board and the Committees of the Board have the right at any time to retain independent outside financial, legal or other advisors.

Executive Sessions – The Board will meet in executive session with the CEO after each Board meeting. In addition, the independent non-management directors of the Company will meet in executive session following each regularly scheduled Board meeting without any inside director or Company executives present. These executive session discussions may include any topic relevant to the business affairs of the Company as determined by the independent non-management directors.

Lead Director – The Governance Committee will review and recommend to the Board a director to serve as Lead Director during executive sessions of the independent members of the Board. The Lead Director will (i) be elected by the independent members of the Board; (ii) preside at all meeting of the Board of Directors at which the Chairman is not present, including executive sessions of independent non-management directors; (iii) serve as liaison between the Chairman and the independent non-management directors; (iv) have the authority to call meetings of the independent non-management directors; (v) consult with the Chairman on agendas for Board meeting; (vi) recommend to the Chairman the retention of outside advisors and consultants who report directly to the Board of Directors on board-wide issues; and (vii) other matters pertinent to the Company and the Board.

Stockholder Communications – In order to provide the stockholders of the Company and other interested parties with a direct and open line of communication to the Company's Board, procedures have been established, as described in Exhibit E, "Stockholder Communications with the Board of Directors".

Termination of Independent Non-Management Director Status – In accordance with the Company's Bylaws, an independent non-management director shall not stand for reelection as a director of the Company at the Annual Meeting following any of the occurrences set forth below. The following provisions may be waived by the Board (excluding the affected director) if the Board determines that such waiver would be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders.

Retirement – The director's 72nd birthday.

Attendance – Any fiscal year in which a director fails to attend at least 66% of the meetings of the Board and any Committees of the Board on which the director serves.

Termination of Inside Director Status – In accordance with the Company's Bylaws, an inside director must resign from the Board (i) at the time of any diminution of his or her responsibilities as an officer; (ii) at the time of termination of employment by the Company for any reason; or (iii) on the director's 72nd birthday.

Conflict of Interest – The Board expects each director, as well as senior management and employees, to act ethically at all times. Independent non-management directors may not serve on more than four other boards of publicly listed companies in addition to the Company's Board of Directors. No officer of the Company may serve on a board of any company having a present or retired employee on the company's Board. Additionally, officers of the Company may not serve as directors of any other publicly-held companies without the approval of the Governance Committee. The CEO may serve on no more than three boards of publicly-held companies, while other officers may serve on no more than one board of a publicly-held company or for profit company. Members of Audit/Ethics Committee of the Board may not simultaneously serve on the audit committees of more than three public companies. If an independent non-management director serving on the Company's Board is asked to join another board of directors, prior notice shall be given to the Chairman of the Governance Committee and the Corporate Secretary of the Company. If an actual or potential conflict of interest arises for a director or senior management, the individual shall promptly inform the CEO or the Board. Any waivers of the Company's Business Code of Conduct for a director or senior management will be determined by the Board or its designated Committee and will be publicly disclosed.

Board Compensation and Evaluation Procedures

Compensation – The Governance Committee will annually review compensation to determine director compensation and recommend any changes to the Board.

Company Stock Ownership – Each independent non-management director is expected to own at least four times his or her annual retainer in Company Common Stock. Such ownership level should be obtained within a reasonable period of time following the director's election to the Board.

Evaluation – Any independent director may at any time provide the Chairman of the Governance Committee an evaluation of another independent director. Questions and observations regarding the evaluation of an independent director will be referred, as necessary, to the Lead Director. The independent directors will perform an annual evaluation on the performance and effectiveness of the Audit/Ethics Committee in accordance with the regulations of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board.

Board Functions

Board Meetings – The Board will hold five regular meetings per year to handle recurring business, with special meetings called as appropriate. Directors are expected to attend all scheduled Board and Committee meetings.

Special Meetings – The number of scheduled Board meetings will vary with circumstances and special meetings will be called as necessary.

Annual Meetings of Stockholders – The Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders provides an opportunity each year for stockholders to ask questions of or otherwise communicate directly with members of the Company's Board on matters relevant to the Company. It is the Company's policy to request and encourage all of the Company's directors and nominees for election as directors to attend in person the Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Agenda Items – The Chairman will be responsible for setting the agenda for and presiding over the Board meetings. Individual directors are encouraged to contact the Chairman with respect to any proposed agenda items that the director believes should be on the agenda. The Corporate Secretary will endeavor to timely provide to the directors all written Board materials to be covered in regular meetings prior thereto.

Committees of the Board - The Board has constituted five standing Committees: Governance Committee, Audit/Ethics Committee, Compensation Committee, Finance Committee and Executive Committee. Each Committee is comprised solely of independent non-management directors, except for the Executive Committee. The Chairman of the Board serves on the Executive Committee. Any independent member of the Board may attend any Committee meeting as an observer.

The Governance Committee annually proposes Committee assignments and chairmanships to the Board. Each Committee is elected by the Board, including the designation by the Board of one person to serve as Chairman of each Committee. On an annual basis, each Committee shall perform an evaluation of the Committee and its activities.

Governance Committee

Purpose: The Committee's purpose is to develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company ("Corporate Governance Guidelines") and to oversee compliance with, conduct reviews of and recommend appropriate modifications to such Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Principal Responsibilities: The Committee will have the oversight responsibility for recruiting and recommending candidates for election to the Board, with advice of the Company's Chairman and CEO. The Committee will periodically conduct a review of criteria for Board membership against current and foreseeable needs of the Company's business. The Committee will also be responsible for monitoring compliance with these Corporate Governance Guidelines adopted by the Board, and updating such guidelines when appropriate. The Committee shall have the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisors, as the Committee deems necessary to carry out its duties. The Committee will also review and recommend to the Board the annual retainer for members of the Board and Committees of the Board, based upon input from consultants. The Committee's Charter shall be posted on the Company's website.

Composition: The Committee will be comprised of not less than three nor more than six of its independent non-management directors. All members of the Committee will be independent, as that term is defined in the NYSE corporate governance listing standards.

Meetings: The Committee will meet at least two times per year as determined by the Board with special meetings called by the Board or the Committee as necessary.

Audit/Ethics Committee

Purpose: The Committee's purpose is to assist the Board with oversight of: (i) the integrity of the Company's financial statements and reporting system, (ii) the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (iii) the independent registered public accounting firm's qualifications and independence and (iv) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent registered public accounting firms. The Committee shall also prepare the Audit/Ethics Committee Report to be included in the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, conduct an annual self-evaluation and carry out the duties and responsibilities set forth in its Charter.

Principal Responsibilities: The principal responsibilities of the Committee are: (i) to provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its responsibility in matters relating to the accounting and reporting practices of the Company, the adequacy of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures; and the quality and integrity of the financial statements of the Company; and (ii) to oversee the Company's compliance programs. The independent registered public accounting firm is ultimately accountable to the Board and the Committee, as representatives of the Company's stockholders, and shall report directly to the Committee. The Committee has the ultimate authority and direct responsibility to select, appoint, evaluate, compensate and oversee the work, and, if necessary, terminate and replace the independent registered public accounting firm. The Committee shall conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibilities.

The Committee shall have the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisors, as the Committee deems necessary to carry out its duties. The Committee has the sole authority to approve the fees paid to any independent advisor retained by the Committee, and the Company will provide funding for such payments. The Company shall provide funding for ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee will review the composition, expertise and availability of the Committee members on an annual basis. The Committee will also perform a self-evaluation of the Committee and its activities on an annual basis. The Committee will meet in executive session at each regularly scheduled meeting, including separate, private meetings with the independent registered public accounting firms, internal auditors, general counsel and compliance officer. The Committee's Charter shall be posted on the Company's website.

The Committee's compliance responsibilities will include the recommendation of and monitoring of compliance with the Company's Business Code of Conduct and Foreign Corrupt Practices Act Policy, establishing formal procedures for (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or audit matters, (ii) the confidential, anonymous submissions by Company employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, and (iii) the protection of reporting employees from retaliation as described in Exhibit F, "Procedures for the Receipt, Retention and Treatment of Complaints"; reviewing in conjunction with counsel (i) any legal matters that could have significant impact on the organization's financial statements; (ii) correspondence and material inquiries received from regulators or governmental agencies; and (iii) all matters relating to the ethics of the Company and its subsidiaries; coordinate the Company's compliance with inquiries from any government officials concerning legal compliance in the areas covered by the Business Code of Conduct and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act Policy; and review the Company's compliance with its environmental policy on an annual basis. The Committee's Charter shall be posted on the Company's website.

Composition: The Committee will be comprised of not less than three independent non-management directors who are (i) independent (as defined by Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the regulations thereunder and the NYSE) and (ii) financially literate (as interpreted by the Board in its business judgment). Such Committee members may not simultaneously serve on the audit committee of more than three publicly-held companies. At least one member of the Committee will have accounting or related financial management expertise and at least one member of the Committee will be an "audit committee financial expert," as defined by the SEC. The audit committee financial expert must have: an understanding of GAAP and financial statements; experience in the (a) preparation, auditing, analyzing or evaluating of financial statements of generally comparable issuers and (b) application of such principles in connection with the accounting for estimates, accruals and reserves; an understanding of internal accounting controls and procedures for financial reporting; and an understanding of audit committee functions.

Meetings: The Committee meets at least five times per year as determined by the Board, with special meetings called by the Board or the Committee as necessary.

Compensation Committee

Purpose: The purpose of the Compensation Committee will be to discharge the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company's executives. The Committee will have overall responsibility for reviewing and evaluating and, as applicable, approving the officer compensation plans of the Company. It is also the purpose of the Committee to produce an annual report on executive compensation for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Principal Responsibilities: The principal responsibility of the Committee will be to ensure that the senior executives of the Company are compensated effectively in a manner consistent with the stated compensation strategy of the Company, internal equity considerations and competitive practice. The Committee shall have the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisors, as the Committee deems necessary to carry out its duties. The Committee will also communicate to the stockholders of the Company, the Company's compensation policies and the reasoning behind such policies as required by the rules and regulations of the SEC. These responsibilities include reviewing from time to time and approving the Company's stated compensation strategy to ensure that management is rewarded appropriately for its contributions to Company growth and profitability and that the executive compensation strategy supports organization objectives and stockholder interests; reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, evaluating the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and determining the CEO's compensation level based on this evaluation; reviewing annually and approving the individual elements of total compensation of the CEO, including annual salary, annual bonus and long-term incentive compensation, and reporting such determination to the Board, provided, however, that the salary, bonus and other long-term incentive compensation will be subject to the approval of the Board. The Committee reviews with the CEO matters relating to management succession. The Committee's Charter shall be posted on the Company's website.

Composition: The Committee will be comprised of not less than three nor more than six of its independent non-management directors. Such directors will meet the requirements for "independent" pursuant to the listing standards of the NYSE and shall meet the requirements for "independent non-management directors" pursuant to Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Meetings: The Committee will meet at least three times per year as determined by the Board.

Finance Committee

Purpose: The Committee's purpose will be to review and monitor the financial structure of the Company to determine that it is consistent with the Company's requirements for growth and fiscally sound operation.

Principal Responsibilities: The principal responsibility of the Committee will be to ensure that the senior executives of the Company are compensated effectively in a manner consistent with the stated compensation strategy of the Company, internal equity considerations and competitive practice. The Committee will also communicate to the stockholders of the Company, the Company's compensation policies and the reasoning behind such policies as required by the rules and regulations of the SEC. These responsibilities include reviewing from time to time and approving the Company's stated compensation strategy to ensure that management is rewarded appropriately for its contributions to Company growth and profitability and that the executive compensation strategy supports organization objectives and stockholder interests; reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, evaluating the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and determining the CEO's compensation level based on this evaluation; reviewing annually and determining the individual elements of total compensation of the CEO, including annual salary, annual bonus and long-term incentive compensation, and reporting such determination to the Board, provided, however, that the salary, bonus and other long-term incentive compensation will be subject to the approval of the Board. The Committee reviews with the CEO matters relating to management succession. The Committee's Charter shall be posted on the Company's website.

Composition: The Committee will be comprised of not less than three independent non-management directors.

Meetings: The Committee will meet at least two times per year as determined by the Board with special meetings called by the Board or the Committee as necessary.

Executive Committee

Principal Responsibilities: The Committee will act in the stead of the Board during intervals between Board meetings and may exercise all of the authority of the Board in the business and affairs of the Company, except where action by the full Board is specifically required. More specifically, the Committee will be responsible for advising and aiding the officers of the Company in all matters concerning its interests and the management of its business. When the Board is not in session, the Committee has and may exercise all the powers of the Board, so far as such may be delegated legally, with reference to the conduct of the business of the Company, except that the Committee will not take any action to amend the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws, to amend its Charter, to elect Directors to fill vacancies on the Board, to fix the compensation of Directors for service in any capacity, to fill vacancies on the Committee or change its membership, to elect or remove officers of the Company or to declare dividends. The Committee's Charter shall be posted on the Company's website.

Composition: The Committee will be comprised of not less than three directors, a majority of which shall be independent and one of which shall be the Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall serve as the Chairman of the Committee unless the Board elects a different director to serve as Chairman. In the absence of the Chairman of the Committee, the Lead Director of the Board will serve as Chairman of the meeting.

Meetings: The Committee will meet from time to time during the year, as needed.

INTERACTION WITH MANAGEMENT

Evaluation of the CEO – The Compensation Committee with input from the Board will annually review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the CEO's compensation, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of such goals and objectives, and determine the CEO's compensation level based on this evaluation and other relevant information. The Committee shall also review annually and determine the individual elements of total compensation of the CEO, including annual salary, annual bonus and long-term incentive compensation and report such determination to the Board, provided, however, that the annual salary, annual bonus and long-term incentive compensation shall be subject to the approval of the Board.

Succession Planning – The Board and the Compensation Committee share the responsibility for succession planning. The Committee shall maintain and review with the Board a list for the Board of potential successors to the CEO. The Chairman shall review management succession planning with the Compensation Committee on an annual basis, and provide a report to the Board.

Attendance at Board & Committee Meetings – The Chairman will routinely invite senior management to attend Board meetings. The Board or any Committee may request the presence of any Company employee at any Board or Committee meeting. In addition, the Chairman will invite such other managers and outside experts to the Board meetings in situations where such persons can aid the Board in its deliberations.

Access to Management – Directors will have complete access to management and management will be available to the Board with respect to any questions regarding Company issues.

INTERPRETATION OF GUIDELINES

These Guidelines provide a framework for governance of the Company and the Board. The Board recognizes that situations may dictate variations from the Guidelines in order to respond to business changes and the needs of the stockholders. In addition, the Guidelines shall be revised and updated from time-to-time. Accordingly, the Guidelines do not constitute invariable rules nor shall they preclude the Board from acting in variance thereto at any time in the future.
