The Bon-Ton Stores, Inc. Announces January Closing of Its Elder-Beerman Store at the Towne Mall in Franklin, Ohio

MILWAUKEE, WI (November 2, 2016) –The Bon-Ton Stores, Inc. (NASDAQ: BONT), today announced it will close its Elder-Beerman store in Towne Mall in Franklin, Ohio. The company will not renew the lease, which terminates January 31, 2017. The closing will impact approximately 65 associates at this location. The store will remain open until the end of its lease term.

“Closing this store was a difficult decision,” commented Kathryn Bufano, president and chief executive officer for The Bon-Ton Stores, Inc. “We would like to thank the loyal customers who have shopped with Elder-Beerman over the years as well as our devoted store associates for their dedication and friendly customer service to this community.”

The affected associates in the Towne Mall Elder-Beerman location will be offered the opportunity to interview for available positions at stores in the area or receive career transition benefits, including severance, according to established practices and state employment service support.

Customers are invited to shop at the nearby Elder-Beerman locations at the Dayton Mall or Kettering Towne Center in Dayton, Ohio or The Mall at Fairfield Commons in Beavercreek, Ohio. Customers may also visit the company’s website at elder-beerman.com.
