

1 The Court, having considered the papers filed in In re Broadcom
2 Corporation Derivative Litigation, Case No. CV-06-3252-R (CWx), including the 3 Settling Parties' Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval of Partial Settlement, the 4 Settling Parties' Stipulation and Agreement of Partial Settlement, all papers and 5 evidence in support thereof, all objections to the Settlement made by current 6 Broadcom Corporation shareholders and the responses thereto, and having heard 7 and considered the arguments of counsel, and good cause having been found,

8 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

9 All proceedings and formal discovery in the above-captioned action shall be 10 stayed until the trials of Henry T. Nicholas III and William J. Ruehle in United 11 States of America v. Henry Nicholas, III, et al., Case No. SA-CR-08-00139-CJC, 12 have been resolved, either through verdict, dismissal or entry of guilty pleas,
13 except for proceedings relating to the Stipulation and the Settlement or any future 14 settlement or resolution of this action, including, but not limited to, the analysis of 15 documents and information produced in connection with this action, consultations 16 with experts, and further efforts to investigate and develop the parties' claims or 17 defenses (other than through formal discovery).

18 In the event that the trial of Henry T. Nicholas, III is continued, the stay 19 shall be partially lifted on May 1, 2010, for the sole purpose of allowing the parties 20 to pursue (a) discovery motions based on discovery requests pending prior to the 21 stay, or (b) additional requests for production of documents or third party 22 subpoenas for documents.

23 Dated: _____, 2009

24 IT IS SO ORDERED.

25 By _____

26 Hon. Manuel Real

27 United States District Judge
28