

BUFFALO WILD WINGS, INC.

SUPPLEMENTAL CODE OF ETHICS
FOR
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER, CHIEF
ACCOUNTING OFFICER OR CONTROLLER
OR PERSONS PERFORMING SIMILAR FUNCTIONS,
EXECUTIVE/SENIOR VICE PRESIDENTS AND VICE PRESIDENTS

In my role as _____ of Buffalo Wild Wings, Inc. (the “Company”), I certify that I adhere to and advocate the following principles and responsibilities governing my professional and ethical conduct.

To the best of my knowledge and ability, I will:

1. Act with honesty and integrity, avoiding actual or apparent conflicts of interest in my personal and professional relationships. If I find myself in a position where my objectivity may be questioned because of individual interest or family or personal relationships, I will notify the Board of Directors of the Company immediately.
2. Provide the Company full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company files with or submits to the Securities Exchange Commission and in other public communications made by the Company.
3. Avoid coercing, manipulating or unduly influencing any authorized audit or interfering with any auditor engaged in the performance of an internal or independent audit of the Company’s system of internal controls, financial statements, or accounting books and records.
4. Comply to the best of my ability with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and rules and regulations of federal, state and local governments and other appropriate private and public regulatory agencies. I understand this responsibility may not be delegated or assumed by the Company or any other person.
5. Act in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence, without misrepresenting material facts or allowing my independent judgment to be subordinated.
6. Respect the confidentiality of information acquired in the course of my employment except when authorized or otherwise legally obligated to disclose. Confidential information acquired in the course of my employment may not be used for personal advantage.
7. Maintain knowledge and skills important and relevant to my position.

8. Avoid appropriating or diverting to others any business opportunity or idea in which the Company might have an interest, or competing with the Company in any way.
9. Proactively promote ethical behavior as a responsible partner among peers and colleagues in the work environment and community.
10. Achieve responsible use of and control over all assets and resources of the Company entrusted to me.
11. Promptly bring to the attention of the Chief Executive Officer or General Counsel any information concerning any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.
12. Report suspected violations of this Code promptly in written form to the General Counsel, or the Senior Vice President of Talent Management of the Company and acknowledge that if either such individual determines that a conflict of interest exists, he or she will refer the matter to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors for resolution.
13. Accept responsibility for adherence to this Code and acknowledge that violations of this Code may expose both me and the Company to criminal or civil prosecution. I understand that any violation of this Code may result in corrective action, including possible termination of my employment with the Company. I further acknowledge and understand that the Company may also seek civil recourse against me and/or refer alleged criminal misconduct to law enforcement agencies.
14. Acknowledge that this Code cannot anticipate every possible situation or cover every topic in detail. If I am unclear about a situation, it is my responsibility to ask for guidance before taking action.
