

CACI Completes Acquisition of SystemWare, Inc.

Expands CACI Capabilities in Counterintelligence and Cybersecurity

Arlington, VA, February 1, 2010 - CACI International Inc (NYSE:CACI) announced today that it has completed its transaction to acquire SystemWare, Inc. SystemWare designs, manufactures, and provides state-of-the-art signals acquisition and analysis systems that enable users to monitor and detect cybersecurity and physical security vulnerabilities and enhance operational security.

Founded in 1988, SystemWare is headquartered in Camarillo, California, near CACI's Oxnard facility, with East Coast operations directed from Elkridge, Maryland, where CACI also has a strong presence. More than half of the company's employees hold Secret-level security clearances and above, and its clientele includes the Department of Defense (DoD), the Intelligence Community, federal civilian agencies, and U.S. allies.

SystemWare solutions include proprietary technologies that combine advanced software and analytical toolsets with cutting-edge, customizable hardware configurations to deliver industry-leading counterintelligence systems. Its quality management system has been awarded ISO 90002:2000 certification, assuring clients of high-quality software development. SystemWare's revenue in calendar year 2009 was $16 million. The acquisition is expected to be accretive to CACI's earnings per share during its first 12 months.

CACI President of U.S. Operations Bill Fairl said, "We're pleased to bring SystemWare, Inc. into the CACI family. SystemWare's products and services complement CACI's information technology solutions and professional services to give us innovative new ways to help our clients solve their greatest challenges."

According to Paul Cofoni, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer, "CACI continues to lead as a strategic IT consolidator, enhancing shareholder value with our strategy of leveraging mergers and acquisitions to gain new capabilities and clients. Our acquisition of SystemWare is particularly important to our ongoing focus on meeting the strong demand for solutions in counterintelligence and cybersecurity, where we look forward to offering SystemWare's proven high-value solutions."

CACI provides professional services and IT solutions needed to prevail in the defense, intelligence, homeland security, and federal civilian government arenas. We deliver enterprise IT and network services; data, information, and knowledge management services; business system solutions; logistics and material readiness; C4ISR integration services; cyber solutions; integrated security and intelligence solutions; and program management and SETA support services. CACI services and solutions help our federal clients provide for national security, improve communications and collaboration, secure the integrity of information systems and networks, enhance data collection and analysis, and increase efficiency and mission effectiveness. CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies and the Russell 2000 index. CACI provides dynamic careers for approximately 12,800 employees working in over 120 offices in the U.S. and Europe.
