Honored for Outstanding Contributions to Company, Community, and Government Contracting

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced that President and Chief Executive Officer Paul Cofoni has been named Executive of the Year by the Greater Washington Government Contractor (GovCon) Awards in the category of companies with annual revenue greater than $300 million. The awards for senior executives honor their leadership, innovation, and commitment to excellence. The awards are sponsored by the Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce, Professional Services Council, and Washington Technology and were presented at the 9th Annual Greater Washington Government Contractor Awards gala event in Tysons Corner, Va.

The Executive of the Year award is presented to the leader who made outstanding contributions to his/her company, the community, and the government contracting industry during the past year. Mr. Cofoni's selection was based on a wide array of factors, including the company's record-breaking financial results, its highly successful mergers and acquisitions strategy, and the company's continuing commitment to providing career opportunities for veterans.

Under Mr. Cofoni's leadership, CACI continues to set records for financial performance. Its fiscal year 2011 results included record revenue of $3.6 billion — 13.6 percent higher than in the year before — and net income of $140 million, up 31 percent compared with the previous year. CACI's dynamic mergers and acquisitions strategy has resulted in more than 50 acquisitions in 20 years, including recent additions that have enhanced the company's intelligence and government transformation capabilities. Mr. Cofoni is committed to career growth for employees and has helped CACI set the pace as a leader in hiring servicemen and women through such programs as his award-winning Deploying Talent — Creating Careers initiative for disabled veterans.
