

CACI Awarded $31 Million Task Order to Help Business Transformation Agency Modernize Defense Financial Systems

Company to Support DoD-Wide Defense Agency Initiative

Arlington, VA, March 10, 2010 - CACI International Inc (NYSE:CACI) announced today it has been awarded a task order valued at approximately $31 million to help the Department of Defense Business Transformation Agency (BTA) implement the Oracle® E-Business Suite in support of BTA's Defense Agency Initiative (DAI) program for the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) and other defense agencies. The contract, which is new business for CACI, was competitively awarded under the Defense Information System Agency's ENCORE II contract vehicle. It is also one of three DAI-related awards CACI has won with the BTA in the past 12 months, which collectively total approximately $53 million.

The DAI program provides a standard financial management solution that interconnects business processes for all DoD agencies. CACI's role focuses on services that help DoD agencies migrate from their current legacy environments to the new DAI infrastructure. This includes providing business process integration, implementation planning, workforce preparation, data conversion, and help desk services. Through its core competency in business system solutions, CACI delivers proven expertise to help agencies migrate efficiently, cost-effectively, and on time. At the same time, CACI's business system solutions help DoD enhance its global enterprise resource planning (ERP) capabilities.

Bill Fairl, CACI President of U.S. Operations, said "CACI is proud to support the Business Transformation Agency in providing innovative enterprise-level solutions to the Department of Defense. CACI solutions will help BTA provide defense agencies with accurate and reliable financial tools and resources to best support the missions of the warfighter."

Paul Cofoni, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "CACI's strategy is to provide solutions for the government's most critical and highly funded requirements. We are dedicated to delivering successful solutions that improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the agencies we support. Our work with BTA is an ongoing partnership to help bring positive transformation at the enterprise level for all our defense clients."

CACI provides professional services and IT solutions needed to prevail in the defense, intelligence, homeland security, and federal civilian government arenas. We deliver enterprise IT and network services; data, information, and knowledge management services; business system solutions; logistics and material readiness; C4ISR integration services; cyber solutions; integrated security and intelligence solutions; and program management and SETA support services. CACI services and solutions help our federal clients provide for national security, improve communications and collaboration, secure the integrity of information systems and networks, enhance data collection and analysis, and increase efficiency and mission effectiveness. CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies and the Russell 2000 index. CACI provides dynamic careers for approximately 12,800 employees working in over 120 offices in the U.S. and Europe. Visit CACI on the web at www.caci.com and www.asymmetricthreat.net.

There are statements made herein which do not address historical facts, and therefore could be interpreted to be forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated include, but are not limited to, the following: regional and national economic conditions in the United States and the United Kingdom, including conditions that result from a prolonged recession; terrorist activities or war; changes in interest rates; currency fluctuations; significant fluctuations in the equity markets; failure to achieve contract awards in connection with recompetes for present business and/or competition for new business; the risks and uncertainties associated with client interest in and purchases of new products and/or services; continued funding of U.S. government or other public sector projects, based on a change in spending patterns, or in the event of a priority need for funds, such as homeland security, the war on terrorism or rebuilding Iraq; or an economic stimulus package; government contract procurement (such as bid protest, small business set asides, loss of work due to organizational conflicts of interest, etc.) and termination risks; the results of government investigations into allegations of improper actions related to the provision of services in support of U.S. military operations in Iraq; the results of government audit and reviews conducted by the Defense Contract Audit Agency or other government entities with cognizant oversight; individual business decisions of our clients; paradigm shifts in technology; competitive factors such as pricing pressures and/or competition to hire and retain employees (particularly those with security clearances); market speculation regarding our continued independence; material changes in laws or regulations applicable to our businesses, particularly in connection with (i) government contracts for services, (ii) outsourcing of activities that have been performed by the government, (iii) competition for task orders under Government Wide Acquisition Contracts ("GWACs") and/or schedule contracts with the General Services Administration; and (iv) accounting for convertible debt instruments; our own ability to achieve the objectives of near term or long range business plans; and other risks described in the company's Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

###

For investor information contact:

David Dragics
Senior Vice President, Investor Relations
(866) 606-3471
ddragics@caci.com

For other information contact:

Jody Brown
Executive Vice President, Public Relations
(703) 841-7801
jbrown@caci.com