

CACI Awarded $350 Million in Previously Unannounced Intelligence Contracts

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded approximately $350 million in previously unannounced contracts with federal government clients in the Intelligence Community (IC). For these awards, CACI is delivering professional services and information technology solutions to national-level intelligence organizations executing the country's most vital and sensitive missions. These contracts were awarded in the first quarter of CACI's 2012 fiscal year, which ended September 30, 2011.

This work, which includes $245 million in new business and more than $100 million in recompetes, underscores CACI's sustained and substantial commitment to intelligence as a core capability and area of growth. CACI is providing a range of high-value services and solutions in fundamental intelligence tasks such as collection, analysis, training, analytic tool development, and knowledge management. These contracts also take advantage of CACI's product offerings in the geospatial intelligence (GEOINT) and signals intelligence (SIGINT) arenas.

CACI President of U.S. Operations Bill Fairl said, "At CACI, intelligence is an integral part of our growth strategy. Not only does it represent a large portion of our business, but our values reflect those of our clients in the Intelligence Community. We continue to win meaningful work that enables us to support their missions in homeland security, defense and civilian intelligence, and law enforcement."

According to Paul Cofoni, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer, "CACI's recent contract wins are the result of our longstanding commitment to the Intelligence Community and our high-caliber team of uniquely qualified professionals. We have invested in this mission-critical area for decades, and we are proud to continue supporting our intelligence clients as they defend our nation from global threats."

Celebrating our 50th year in business, CACI sustains an exceptional record of success by providing professional services and IT solutions needed to prevail in the areas of defense, intelligence, homeland security, and IT modernization and government transformation. We deliver enterprise IT and network services; data, information, and knowledge management services; business system solutions; logistics and material readiness; C4ISR solutions; cyber solutions; integrated security and intelligence solutions; and program management and SETA support services. CACI solutions help federal clients provide for national security, improve communications and collaboration, secure information systems and networks, enhance data collection and analysis, and increase efficiency and mission effectiveness. A member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies and the Russell 2000 index, CACI provides dynamic careers for approximately 14,300 employees working in over 120 offices in the U.S. and Europe. Visit CACI on the web at www.caci.com and www.asymmetricthreat.net.

There are statements made herein which do not address historical facts, and therefore could be interpreted to be forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth in CACI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2011, and other such filings that CACI makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. Any forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon and only speak as of the date hereof.

CACI-Contract

CACI International Inc
Corporate Communications and Media:
Jody Brown, Executive Vice President, Public Relations
703-841-7801
jbrown@caci.com or Investor Relations:
David Dragics, Senior Vice President, Investor Relations
866-606-3471
ddragics@caci.com

Source: CACI International Inc

