

CACI Awarded $189 Million in Previously Unannounced Intelligence Contracts

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded approximately $189 million in previously unannounced contracts with federal government clients in the Intelligence Community (IC). For these awards, CACI is delivering professional services and information technology solutions to intelligence organizations responsible for carrying out the nation's most vital and sensitive missions. These contracts were awarded in the second quarter of CACI's 2012 fiscal year, which ended December 31, 2011.

These awards highlight CACI's sustained commitment to the intelligence community's critical missions. CACI is providing a range of high-value services and innovative solutions in support of the intelligence cycle, including collection, analysis, information sharing, and advanced knowledge management. These contracts draw on and underscore CACI's deep expertise in the key areas of cyber intelligence, counterintelligence, geospatial intelligence, and signals intelligence.

CACI President of U.S. Operations Dan Allen said, "CACI's recent contract wins continue our momentum in growing our intelligence business, which is a foundational part of who we are as a company and now comprises 43 percent of our revenue. We are especially focused on providing our clients with the very best solutions to meet critical emerging needs in such areas as cyberspace and geospatial intelligence."

According to Paul Cofoni, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer, "CACI's investment in our intelligence services and solutions is increasing our market share and continues the opportunity to deliver meaningful support to our nation's most critical missions. These awards also reflect our strategy to diversify our intelligence work in a wide range of mission areas."

Celebrating our 50th year in business, CACI sustains an exceptional record of success by providing professional services and IT solutions needed to prevail in the areas of defense, intelligence, homeland security, and IT modernization and government transformation. We deliver enterprise IT and network services; data, information, and knowledge management services; business system solutions; logistics and material readiness; C4ISR solutions; cyber solutions; integrated security and intelligence solutions; and program management and SETA support services. CACI solutions help federal clients provide for national security, improve communications and collaboration, secure information systems and networks, enhance data collection and analysis, and increase efficiency and mission effectiveness. A member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies and the Russell 2000 index, CACI provides dynamic careers for approximately 14,400 employees working in over 120 offices in the U.S. and Europe. Visit CACI on the web at www.caci.com and www.asymmetricthreat.net.

There are statements made herein which do not address historical facts, and therefore could be interpreted to be forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth in CACI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2011, and other such filings that CACI makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. Any forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon and only speak as of the date hereof.

CACI-Contract

CACI International Inc
Corporate Communications and Media:
Jody Brown, Executive Vice President, Public Relations
703-841-7801
jbrown@caci.com or Investor Relations:
David Dragics, Senior Vice President, Investor Relations
866-606-3471
ddragics@caci.com

Source: CACI International Inc

News Provided by Acquire Media