

FranklinCovey Products Announces AT&T(R) Certification for Innovative Mobile Technology

FCmobilelife(TM), distributed exclusively by FranklinCovey(R) Products in a licensing agreement with The SCO Group, achieves AT&T certification which ensures AT&T users that it works seamlessly with the AT&T digital network

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept 11, 2008 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- FranklinCovey Products, a global leader in effectiveness and productivity tools, today announced that AT&T has granted certification to its new FCmobilelife product to run on the AT&T digital network as a Certified Solution. FCmobilelife is a new and unique mobile collaboration tool enabling smart phone and PC users to communicate with powerful multimedia blogs, set goals and appointments real-time, and create and delegate task lists whenever and wherever over the air. Unlike any other current mobile solutions, FCmobilelife allows users to setup appointments and meetings with confidence through its unique busy search function. FCmobilelife is developed by The SCO Group of Lindon, Utah, under an exclusive licensing agreement with FranklinCovey. Together, the companies have worked with AT&T to ensure certification of FCmobilelife on its mobile network.

AT&T certification is granted after rigorous testing by AT&T labs to ensure compliancy and functionality on the AT&T digital network.

"FCmobilelife is a powerful and innovative mobile solution that will help customers dramatically leverage their smart phone investment," said Jeff Anderson, vice president for FranklinCovey Products.

"We continually look at ways to improve the productivity and effectiveness of our customers and FCmobilelife stands out as a unique tool for doing just that," said Anderson. "Certification by AT&T further validates this new technology and gives customers the assurance they need to run on the AT&T mobile network. Recently we have seen hundreds of new users downloading FCmobilelife daily."

"AT&T customers value application certification as it ensures smooth interoperability with their BlackBerry(R) and Windows(R) Mobile smart phones and gives them an excellent experience with FCmobilelife on AT&T's network," said Jeff Hunsaker, president and chief operating officer for SCO Operations. "With this new certification, AT&T mobile solution providers can recommend FCmobilelife with confidence to AT&T mobile users," said Hunsaker.
