

The SCO Group Achieves Milestone of 10,000 Mobile Solutions Users and Prepares to Release Two New Mobile Applications

--SCO preparing to add new FC Goals(TM) and FC Tasks(TM) for BlackBerry(R) users to its portfolio of mobile applications

LINDON, Utah, July 24, 2009 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- The SCO Group, Inc., (Pink Sheets: SCOXQ) a leading provider of UNIX(R) software technology and mobility solutions, today announced that it has reached a significant milestone within its mobile technology business. Ranking as high as #13 on Apple's App store for paid productivity applications, FC Tasks(TM), sold under the FranklinCovey Products brand, and FC Mobilelife(TM) have surpassed 10,000 customers.

Designed specifically for Apple's popular iPhone(R) and iPod Touch(R), FC Tasks, which is marketed exclusively by FranklinCovey Products is an easy-to-use, feature-rich task management tool that incorporates proven FranklinCovey planning methodology. FC Tasks quickly manages daily personal and professional tasks from an iPhone and iPod Touch with this application available from the world leaders in time management. FC Tasks, based on popular demand, will also be available for select, popular BlackBerry models in the coming weeks.

"This is a significant milestone for our application business," said Jeff Hunsaker, president and chief operating officer, SCO Operations. "Effective task management from mobile devices gives users greater productivity anywhere, anytime and enhances the communication experience of iPhone and iPod Touch users," said Hunsaker.

FC Tasks sells for $5.99 from Apple's App Store. For more information about FC Tasks, visit <http://www.fcmobilelife.com/products/fctasks.php>

FC Mobilelife(TM), available for download at www.fcmobilelife.com, enables smart phone and PC users to communicate with powerful multimedia blogs, set goals and appointments real-time, as well as create and delegate task lists whenever and wherever. Unlike any other current solutions, FC Mobilelife allows users to setup appointments and meetings with confidence and check team members' calendars through its unique busy search function right from the convenience of their BlackBerry(R) and Windows(R) smartphones. FC Mobilelife has a free trial version as well as several paid, professional license editions.

SCO also announces an upcoming release of a new mobile application, FranklinCovey Mobilelife Goals. FC Goals incorporates the FranklinCovey methodology of setting and tracking goals into a powerful, new iPhone and iPod Touch application. FC Goals allows users to set and achieve goals whenever and wherever you are. Its unique multimedia capabilities allow you to add audio and multi-media to goal tracking and visually view percentages completed within the application.

"FC Goals provides iPhone and iPod Touch users with the capability of being connected to their goals in a mobile environment using a powerful, visually-pleasing interface," said Shaun Cutler, director of product management, SCO. "Also, with its new Spoken Goals feature, users can instantly add audio goals while on the go," said Cutler.

FC Goals will be available for sale through the Apple App store and is estimated to sell for $4.99.
