

CDI Receives Multi-Year Contract from TransCanada Corporation

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- CDI Corporation (NYSE: CDI) today announced that its Canadian subsidiary, CDI Professional Services, Ltd., has been awarded a multi-year, multi-million dollar Master Services Agreement from TransCanada Corporation.

Under this agreement, CDI will serve as a significant vendor for TransCanada, a leading energy infrastructure company in North America. CDI will be responsible for providing staffing services including construction management and inspection, engineering, project management and technical skill sets for pipeline, power and facilities infrastructure projects throughout North America.

"CDI has worked with TransCanada since 1998, partnering with them to provide the resources they need to complete key projects as well as supplying ongoing maintenance and operations support," said Greg Thullner, senior vice president and general manager of CDI Professional Services, Ltd. "As our relationship evolved over the years, we gained a clear understanding of their business objectives and developed customized talent solutions to meet their needs. This contract renewal demonstrates that TransCanada recognizes our dedication to implementing efficient programs that contribute to the success of their company."
