

CDI Named to HRO Today Magazine's 'Project/On-Demand Leaders' List of Top Recruitment Process Outsourcing Firms

PHILADELPHIA, Aug 19, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX News Network/ -- CDI Corp. (NYSE: CDI) announced today that its CDI-Talent Management division, along with its alliance associate, WorldConcert, has been named to HRO Today Magazine's "Project/On-Demand Leaders" list of top recruitment process outsourcing (RPO) firms.

HRO Today covers the latest industry trends in human resources outsourcing, services, shared services and operations. Each year, the magazine compiles three lists - Enterprise Baker's Dozen, Global Leaders and Leading Project/On-Demand Providers - based on surveys completed by HR executives who are current buyers of RPO services. This year's results are based on more than 600 submittals, each rating RPO providers on the breadth of their service, the size of the programs they manage and the quality of service provided.

The ranking reflects the service provided by CDI-Talent Management, its Canadian affiliate, CDI Professional Services, Ltd., and its alliance associate, WorldConcert - the RPO division of global executive recruiting firm, WorldBridge Partners.

"CDI has yet again proved to be a top provider of talent acquisition programs," said Elliot Clark, CEO of SharedXpertise, publishers of HRO Today Magazine. "This recognition, along with their recent appearance on our MSP Baker's Dozen list of top Managed Service Program (MSP) providers, demonstrates that CDI has become a major competitor among other top tier firms. I have no doubt that they will consistently be ranked on our lists in the future."

"The WorldConcert team is pleased to be named to HRO Today Magazine's list of top mid-market and on-demand providers," said Jack Downing, Managing Partner of WorldConcert. "Through our network of offices and recruiters, along with the global reach of CDI, we are proud that our dedication to delivering superior RPO programs has been recognized by our clients."

"Our recognition as a top on-demand leader demonstrates that our clients appreciate our ability to deliver customized talent management solutions," said Brad Dever, Vice President, Business Development of CDI-Talent Management. "We strive to partner with our clients, understand their strategic goals and develop unique programs to meet their business needs. By utilizing our sophisticated recruiting process and project management skills, we can improve efficiencies, allowing us to become a valuable contributor to our client's success."
