

Constellation Energy

Paul J. Allen

*Senior Vice President, Corporate Affairs and Chief Environmental Officer,
Constellation Energy*

Paul J. Allen is responsible for Constellation Energy's government affairs, public policy portfolio and environmental initiatives. He is chairman of the corporate environmental policy committee. Allen joined Constellation Energy in 2001 as Vice President, Corporate Affairs. Before joining the company, Mr. Allen had worked closely with Constellation Energy for several years in his capacity as Senior Vice President and Group Head at Ogilvy Public Relations, Washington, D.C., where he managed the firm's energy and environment practice.

In his 10 years at Ogilvy PR, Mr. Allen's clients included the Ford Motor Company, BP-Amoco, Edison International and Edison Mission Energy, the Edison Electric Institute (EEI), the Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI) and the Alliance for Competitive Electricity (ACE), as well as other energy companies and environmental NGOs.

Prior to joining Ogilvy in 1991, he served for five years on the senior staff of the Natural Resources Defense Council. Before his tenure at NRDC, he was press secretary for U.S. Senator Christopher Dodd and participated in the Senator's reelection campaign in 1986.

In 1979 Mr. Allen began working for National Public Radio where he was editor of the daily national news program, "Morning Edition." He also served as foreign news editor for all NPR news programs until joining Senator Dodd's staff in mid-1985.

Mr. Allen graduated from the University of Colorado.

Mr. Allen currently is the Chairman of the Chesapeake Bay Trust and serves as a member of the board of the Strathmore Hall Foundation.