CHICAGO, June 6, 2007 — Chicago Mercantile Exchange Holdings Inc. (NYSE: CME)(NASDAQ: CME) and CBOT Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: BOT) today announced that they will begin mailing the joint proxy statement/prospectus relating to their proposed merger on or about June 8, 2007.

Both companies will hold shareholder meetings on July 9, 2007, to seek approval for the proposed merger and other merger related issues. CME's Board of Directors and CBOT Holdings' Board of Directors have unanimously recommended that their respective shareholders vote "for" the adoption of the merger agreement originally entered into on October 17, 2006, and amended on December 20, 2006, and May 11, 2007.

Completion of the merger requires an affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of CME's Class A and Class B common stock (voting together as a single class), and a majority of the outstanding shares of CBOT Holdings' Class A common stock. The merger also requires certain approvals from Series B-1 and B-2 members of the CBOT.

Pending certain regulatory approvals, the parties expect to close the transaction in mid-year 2007. The joint proxy statement/prospectus is available at: <http://www.sec.gov/>, <http://www.cme.com/> and <http://www.cbot.com/>.
