Citi Trends, Inc. Shares Statement from Former CEO Jason Mazzola

SAVANNAH, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Citi Trends, Inc. (NASDAQ:CTRN) (the "Company") today shared the following statement made by former Company Chief Executive Officer and director Jason Mazzola, who left the Company in late March to pursue another opportunity.

"Having been made aware of conflicting narratives and speculation regarding my departure from Citi Trends, I feel compelled to set the record straight. I have full confidence in Citi Trends' long-term strategy to enhance stockholder value, which I helped develop with Bruce Smith, Ed Anderson and the rest of the Citi Trends board.

This strategy is yielding positive results, as evidenced by Citi Trends' improving sales and gross margins. I remain a significant Citi Trends stockholder, and as such, I have a vested interest in the Company's success. Accordingly, I plan to vote all my shares in favor of the Citi Trends board as I believe it is best suited to drive stockholder value.

My decision to leave Citi Trends was a difficult one, which is a testament to my terrific experience working alongside Ed, who is a mentor to me and the rest of the team. This personal choice was driven not by conflict or unhappiness, but rather by the unique opportunity in private equity to build out another successful retail platform.

Had I been asked about my reasons for leaving the Company, I would have gladly communicated that my departure was not acrimonious and that I unequivocally support the Citi Trends board and management team."
