LeCuyer continues reporting to Warren Schlichting, DISH executive vice president of Marketing, Programming and Media Sales.

"Andy has successfully led the team through forward-looking, complex programming negotiations," said Schlichting. "He has the poise and imagination to continue transforming this industry in an effort to better serve the consumers who are changing the way they watch TV."

Andy joined DISH in 2011 as director of Programming, and later vice president of Programming, overseeing local retransmission relationships nationwide. Soon after, he assumed responsibility for Premium, Pay-Per-View and International programming.
