

Endologix Presentations

Symposium

Tuesday, 24th April
10:00 – 10:30, Pillar Hall

Active Sac Management with Endovascular Aneurysm Sealing

Moderator | Michel Reijnen
Arnhem, The Netherlands

Endovascular Aneurysm Sealing After Five Years of Clinical Use: Current Status and Future Directions
Andrew Holden Auckland, New Zealand

Reduction in Cardiovascular-Related Adverse Events Following EVAS vs. EVAR
Patrick Berg Kevelaer, Germany

Tea Break Session

Wednesday, 25th April
15:30 – 16:00, Upper Main Auditorium

Polymer EVAR with Ovation®: Results from ENCORE

Moderator | Hence Verhagen
Rotterdam, The Netherlands

An Introduction to ENCORE, a Contemporary Analysis of 1296 Patients
Marc Schermerhorn Boston, United States

ENCORE Results Related to the Ovation Low Profile Endograft
Sean Lyden Cleveland, United States

Endologix Learning Center

Grand Hall #151

Tuesday, 24th April, 12:30

The Advantages of Anatomical Fixation: 15 Years of Experience
Giancarlo Accarino Salerno, Italy

Wednesday, 25th April, 12:30

The Clinical Benefits of Personalized Care
Piotr Szopinski Warsaw, Poland

Thursday, 26th April, 12:30

Why an Ultra-Low Profile Graft Can Improve EVAR Outcomes
Martin Storck Karlsruhe, Germany

Podium Talks

Upper Main Auditorium

Wednesday, 25th April

EVAR in Women Controversies 9:19 – 9:26

EVAR in Women vs. Men – Early Results of LUCY Study

Jennifer Ash Champaign, United States

Late-Breaking Aortic Trials 14:58 – 15:08

EVAS is Associated with a Reduction in All-Cause Mortality

Marc Schermerhorn Boston, United States

Thursday, 26th April

Juxta-Renal (Complex Abdominal Aortic) Controversies 16:30 – 16:36

Endovascular Custom Ovation Review of Evidence for Avoiding FEVAR or Parallel Graft Use

Sean Lyden Cleveland, United States