EnerNOC's Energy Procurement Platform Wins Product of the Year Award from Energy Manager Today

BOSTON, Feb. 07, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- EnerNOC, Inc. (Nasdaq:ENOC), a leading provider of energy intelligence software (EIS) and demand response solutions, announced today that its energy procurement platform has been honored with Energy Manager Today's Product of the Year Award. The award is designed to celebrate achievements in energy management that show innovation, efficiency, reliability, and contribution to the bottom line.

EnerNOC's energy procurement platform enables businesses to source energy at the most competitive price, manage market risk, and centralize contract management. The platform's reverse auction functionality was highlighted by the judges as truly differentiated. This reverse auction technology provides an open, transparent forum where retail suppliers compete for customers' supply contracts in real-time, ensuring that EnerNOC's customers get the best possible price for energy.

"EnerNOC's energy procurement platform has helped thousands of businesses get the most competitive price for energy. On average, our customers save 13 percent when transacting on the platform versus traditional paper-based RFPs," said Jackie Bliss, General Manager, Procurement at EnerNOC. "But technology is only one part of the solution. Our team of industry experts help customers design energy procurement strategies tailored specifically to their risk tolerance and budget requirements."
