Experience This Holiday's Highest Rated Shooter with the Titanfall 2 Free Multiplayer Trial

First Free Downloadable Map Coming This Week with Angel City's Most Wanted

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Respawn Entertainment and Electronic Arts Inc. (NASDAQ:EA) today announced that this holiday's highest rated shooter, Titanfall® 2, will host a free trial of the game's full multiplayer offering. The trial* will begin for EA Access and Origin Access members on November 30th, and become available for all non EA Access and Origin Access players starting December 2nd on Xbox One, PlayStation® 4 and Origin for PC. Trial players will get a chance to experience the fast and fluid multiplayer in Titanfall that "makes the competition feel clunky and staid in comparison," according to Eurogamer. Those looking to continue this action into the full game will have all their multiplayer progress carryover, in addition to getting their hands-on what Entertainment Weekly calls, "one of the best single-player campaigns of the year."

Since the game's launch, Titanfall 2 has received universal praise from critics worldwide and has been nominated for the Game of the Year award from The Game Awards, with the winner being announced on December 1st. In multiplayer, Titanfall 2 has built on the dynamic Pilot and Titan gameplay from the first Titanfall and delivered a wide variety of robust modes, maps and weapons for players to choose from. In Respawn's single player debut, the team has elevated the first-person shooter genre by bringing fresh ideas, clever design elements and innovation to the carefully crafted story campaign.

Following the release of Titanfall 2, all post-launch maps, modes, and weapons will be absolutely free to all players, and that all starts on November 30th with the release of Angel City's Most Wanted. Featuring the fully remastered fan favorite Angel City map from the original Titanfall, Angel City's Most Wanted introduces additional free content
