

EasyLink Services International Corporation Announces Launch of New Corporate Website

Site Offers Modern Look with Improved Navigation

NORCROSS, Ga., Sep 16, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- EasyLink Services International Corporation ("EasyLink" or "Company") (NasdaqCM: ESIC, www.easylink.com), a global provider of comprehensive messaging services and e-commerce solutions, today announced it has launched its new corporate website at www.easylink.com.

The new website offers six main areas of navigation that feature tabbed index pages to help visitors easily identify pages that they are looking for. The main navigation consists of EasyLink Services, Industry Solutions, About EasyLink, Investor Relations, Partners, and Customer Support.

"The website highlights EasyLink Services by using the more descriptive and intuitive service identifiers of EDI, Fax, Managed File Transfer and Telex. We believe these terms are more user-friendly and will help our clients and potential clients to easily find the information that they are interested in," said Kevin Maloney, Senior Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing, EasyLink Services.

The Customer Support section has also been streamlined with the most important information customers need, and access to customer portals for quick and easy access to productivity tools.
