In the absence of such designation, the members of the Committee may designate the Chairperson by majority vote of the full Committee membership. APPENDIX A

Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee Policy Regarding Qualifications of Directors

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of FutureFuel Corp. (the “Company”) believes that members of the Company’s board of directors (the “Board”) must possess certain basic personal and professional qualities in order to properly discharge their fiduciary duties to shareholders, provide effective oversight of the management of the Company, and monitor the Company’s adherence to principles of sound corporate governance. It is therefore the policy of the Committee that all persons nominated to serve as a director of the Company should possess the minimum qualifications described in this Policy. These are only threshold criteria, however, and the Committee will also consider the contributions that a candidate can be expected to make to the collective functioning of the Board based upon the totality of the candidate’s credentials, experience, and expertise, the composition of the Board at the time, and other relevant circumstances. This Policy may be modified by the Committee from time to time.

1. Integrity and Ethical Values. Candidates should possess the highest personal and professional standards of integrity and ethical values.
2. Commitment. Candidates must be committed to promoting and enhancing the long-term value of the Company for its shareholders.
3. Absence of Conflicts of Interest. Candidates should not have any interests that would materially impair their ability to: (i) exercise independent judgment; or (ii) otherwise discharge the fiduciary duties owed as a director to the Company and its shareholders.
4. Fair and Equal Representation. Candidates must be able to represent fairly and equally all shareholders of the Company without favoring or advancing any particular shareholder or other constituency of the Company.
5. Achievement. Candidates must have demonstrated achievement in one or more fields of business, professional, governmental, community, scientific, or educational endeavor, and possess mature and objective business judgment and expertise.
6. Oversight. Candidates are expected to have sound judgment, derived from management or policy-making experience (which may be as an advisor or consultant), that demonstrates an ability to function effectively in an oversight role.
7. Business Understanding. Candidates must have a general appreciation regarding major issues facing public companies of a size and operational scope similar to the Company. These include:
 - contemporary governance concerns;
 - regulatory obligations of a public issuer;
 - strategic business planning;
 - competition in a global economy; and
 - basic concepts of corporate accounting and finance.

8. Available Time. Candidates must have, and be prepared to devote, adequate time to the Board and its committees. It is expected that each candidate will be able to arrange their business and professional commitments, including service on the boards of other companies and organizations, so that they are available to attend the meetings of the Board and any committees on which they serve, as well as the Company's annual meeting of shareholders, and adequately review any meeting materials prior to such meetings.

9. Board Policies. The candidate's election must not conflict with any applicable Board policies.

10. Limited Exceptions. Under exceptional and limited circumstances, the Committee may approve the candidacy of a nominee who does not satisfy all of these requirements if it believes the service of such nominee is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

11. Additional Qualifications. In approving candidates for election as director, the Committee will also assure that:

- at least a majority of the directors serving at any time on the Board are independent, as defined under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange;
- at least three of the directors satisfy the financial literacy requirements required for service on the audit committee under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange;
- at least one of the directors qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission; and
- the independent directors have general familiarity with an industry or industries in which the Company conducts a substantial portion of its business, or in related industries.

Submissions of such recommendations must comply with the requirements set forth in the Bylaws and below. Acceptance of a recommendation for consideration does not imply that the Committee will nominate the recommended candidate.
2. Manner and Address for Submission. All shareholder nominating recommendations must be in writing, addressed to the Committee care of the Company’s corporate secretary at the Company’s principal offices. Submissions must be made by mail, courier, or personal delivery. E-mailed submissions will not be considered.

 - The name and address, including telephone number, of the recommending shareholder; The number of the Company’s shares owned by the recommending shareholder and the time period for which such shares have been held;
 - If the recommending shareholder is not a shareholder of record, a statement from the record holder of the shares (usually a broker or bank) verifying the holdings of the shareholder and a statement from the recommending shareholder of the length of time that the shares have been held; alternatively, the shareholder may furnish a current Schedule 13D, Schedule 13G, Form 3, Form 4, or Form 5 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission reflecting the holdings of the shareholder, together with a statement of the length of time that the shares have been held; and
 - A statement from the shareholder as to whether the shareholder has a good faith intention to continue to hold the reported shares through the date of the Company’s next annual meeting of shareholders.

The nominating recommendation must describe all relationships, if any, between the proposed nominee and the recommending shareholder, and any agreements or understandings regarding the nomination, including those between the recommending shareholder and the nominee.

6. Other Relationships of the Proposed Nominee. The nominating recommendation must describe all relationships, if any, between the proposed nominee and any of the Company's competitors, customers, suppliers, labor unions, or other persons with special interests regarding the Company.

7. Qualifications of the Proposed Nominee. The recommending shareholder must furnish a statement supporting its view that the proposed nominee possesses the minimum qualifications prescribed by the Committee for nominees, and briefly describing the contributions that the nominee would be expected to make to the Board and to the governance of the Company.

8. Ability to Represent All Shareholders. The recommending shareholder must state whether, in the view of the shareholder, the nominee, if elected, would represent all shareholders and not serve for the purpose of advancing or favoring any particular shareholder or other constituency of the Company.

A shareholder (or group of shareholders) wishing to submit a nominating recommendation for an annual meeting of shareholders must ensure that it is received by the Company, as provided above, not later than the time set forth in the Bylaws.

11. Shareholder Groups. If a recommendation is submitted by a group of two or more shareholders, the information regarding recommending shareholders set forth in paragraph three above must be submitted with respect to each shareholder in the group.

APPENDIX C

Policy on Shareholder Recommendation of Candidates for Election as Directors

1. It is the policy of FutureFuel Corp.
