

Sedgwick CMS And Fidelity National Financial Announce Acquisition Of CompManagement

Memphis, Tenn. and Jacksonville, Fla., June 13, 2006 – Sedgwick CMS Holdings, Inc., the parent company of Sedgwick Claims Management Services, Inc. (Sedgwick CMS), the leading provider of innovative claims and productivity management solutions, has signed a definitive agreement to acquire CompManagement, Inc. (CMI) and its affiliated companies through a merger of a subsidiary of Sedgwick CMS Holdings with CMI's parent company, Security Capital Corporation (AMEX: SCC), for a cash purchase price of approximately $191.5 million. Today's announcement comes jointly from Sedgwick CMS and from Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE:FNF), a principal equity holder of Sedgwick CMS Holdings, Inc. along with Thomas H. Lee Partners, L.P. and Evercore Capital Partners.

CMI and its affiliates provide third-party claims administration (TPA) and a variety of related claims, risk and benefits consulting services to clients nationwide. Combined 2005 revenue was $145 million. The CMI group of companies includes:

- CompManagement, Inc., a full-service TPA delivering integrated workers' compensation, disability and other employee absence claims administration and managed care services to large and small employers including employer trade association programs.
- Octagon Risk Services, Inc., a large account-oriented TPA specializing in workers' compensation, medical professional liability, general liability and employment practices liability claims administration and related consulting services.
- CompManagement Health Systems, Inc., a State of Ohio-certified managed care organization (MCO).
- CMI Octagon, Inc. (formerly CompManagement of Virginia, Inc.), a provider of workers' compensation and general liability claims services principally in the mid-Atlantic states.
- Caronia Corporation, a national provider of professional liability claims and risk management services to healthcare providers.
- CMI Barron Risk Management Services, Inc., a provider of workers' compensation and other claims management services principally in the Southwest.
- RHS Solutions, a provider of risk, health and safety management consulting and educational services to small and mid-sized businesses.
- Integrated Claims Strategies (ICS), a full-service claims adjusting service operating in the Southeastern United States.

"This acquisition brings a robust and diverse array of specialized capabilities to Sedgwick CMS," said Sedgwick CMS President and CEO David A. North. "Some we will integrate into our service offerings for current clients. Others will take us into new businesses such as services for managed care organizations (MCO services) and medical malpractice claims administration, or materially increase our presence in important markets such as association programs and regional employers.

"We are very pleased to welcome the 1350 people of the CMI group to Sedgwick CMS. We look forward to working with their talented management team in implementing plans to deliver additional benefits to clients, career opportunities to our new colleagues, and returns to our shareholders," North concluded.

"The CMI family of companies is a great addition to the Sedgwick CMS platform," said William P. Foley, FNF Chairman and CEO. "CMI not only provides a significant incremental revenue stream, but it also broadens the product offering that Sedgwick CMS can offer to its current and future customers."

The final purchase price is subject to certain adjustments. The closing is subject to regulatory approvals and other customary conditions and is expected to occur late in the third quarter or early in the fourth quarter of 2006.

Additional information about the acquisition and merger and where to find it: In connection with the proposed acquisition of Security Capital Corporation through a merger with a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sedgwick CMS Holdings, Security Capital Corporation intends to file relevant materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), including a proxy statement. INVESTORS AND SECURITY HOLDERS OF SECURITY CAPITAL CORPORATION ARE URGED TO READ THESE MATERIALS WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT SECURITY CAPITAL CORPORATION, SEDGWICK CMS HOLDINGS AND THE ACQUISITION. The proxy statement and other relevant materials (when they become available) and any other documents filed by SCC with the SEC may be obtained free of charge at the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>.
