

Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Announces Amendment of Credit Facility

Jacksonville, Fla. -- (April 16, 2012) -- Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE:FNF), a leading provider of title insurance, mortgage services and diversified services, today announced the amendment and restatement of its existing $925 million senior unsecured revolving credit facility ("credit facility") that was scheduled to mature on March 5, 2013.

The total size of the amended credit facility has been reduced to $800 million, with an FNF option to increase the size of the credit facility to $900 million. The maturity date of the amended credit facility is April 16, 2016, and pricing has decreased to an applicable margin of between 132.5 basis points to 160 basis points over LIBOR, depending on the senior debt ratings of FNF. At the current Moody's and Standard & Poor's senior debt ratings of Baa3/BBB-, respectively, the applicable margin is 145 basis points. Financial covenants remain essentially the same as in the previous credit facility, including minimum consolidated net worth and maximum indebtedness to capitalization ratio covenants. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, U.S. Bank National Association and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC acted as joint lead arrangers and joint book managers of the credit facility.

About FNF

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements regarding our expectations, hopes, intentions or strategies regarding the future are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on management's beliefs, as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, management. Because such statements are based on expectations as to future financial and operating results and are not statements of fact, actual results may differ materially from those projected. We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. The risks and uncertainties which forward-looking statements are subject to include, but are not limited to: changes in general economic, business and political conditions, including changes in the financial markets; weakness or adverse changes in the level of real estate activity, which may be caused by, among other things, high or increasing interest rates, a limited supply of mortgage funding or a weak U. S. economy; our potential inability to find suitable acquisition candidates, acquisitions in lines of business that will not necessarily be limited to our traditional areas of focus, or difficulties in integrating acquisitions; our dependence on distributions from our title insurance underwriters as a main source of cash flow; significant competition that our operating subsidiaries face; compliance with extensive government regulation of our operating subsidiaries; and other risks detailed in the "Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information," "Risk Factors" and other sections of the Company's Form 10-K and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
