

First Tennessee Foundation Commits Up to $500,000 for Storm Relief Efforts

Gifts Designated to American Red Cross, Salvation Army

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 3, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- The First Tennessee Foundation announced today that it will provide up to $500,000 to Tennesseans affected by the weekend's storms through a direct contribution and by matching First Tennessee and FTN Financial employee and customer contributions.

The foundation will make a $250,000 direct contribution evenly split between the American Red Cross and the Salvation Army. In addition, the foundation will match First Tennessee employee and customer gifts to the Red Cross and Salvation Army, also up to $250,000.

Customers wishing to participate in the relief effort can do so by going to any First Tennessee financial center throughout the state and making a donation to the Red Cross or the Salvation Army. Contributions can be made through May 15.

About The First Tennessee Foundation and First Horizon National Corp.

The First Tennessee Foundation is a private charitable foundation established by First Horizon National Corp. (NYSE:FHN) (www.fhnc.com) in 1993 to support nonprofit community organizations. During the past five years, our corporation and our foundation have donated more than $27 million to meet community needs.

FHN-G

This news release was distributed by GlobeNewswire, www.globenewswire.com

SOURCE: First Horizon National Corporation

CONTACT: First Horizon National Corporation
Anthony Hicks
901-523-4726
Kim Cherry
901-523-4380

(C) Copyright 2010 GlobeNewswire, Inc. All rights reserved.

News Provided by COMTEX