VOTING INFORMATION

What is the purpose of the Annual Meeting?

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will consider and vote on the following matters:

1. To fix our Board of Directors at five members;
2. To elect five members to our Board of Directors for the ensuing year;
3. To ratify the Audit Committee's appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as our independent registered public accountants for the year ending December 31, 2007;
4. To approve, by an ordinary resolution, amendments to our Bylaws to clarify the indemnification rights of directors and officers;
5. To approve, by a special resolution, an amendment to our Articles to add preferred shares to the authorized capital of the Company; and
6. To transact any such other business as may properly be brought before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Who can vote?

To be able to vote, you must have been a shareholder of record at the close of business on April 27, 2007 (the "record date"). Shareholders of record on the record date are entitled to vote on each proposal at the Annual Meeting. As of the record date, there were 195,341,375 common shares outstanding. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting.

How many votes do I have?

Each of our common shares that you own on the record date entitles you to one vote on each matter that is properly brought before the Annual Meeting.

Is my vote important?

Your vote is important regardless of how many shares you own. Please take the time to vote. Take a moment to read the instructions below. Choose the way to vote that is easiest and most convenient for you and cast your vote as soon as possible.

What constitutes a quorum and voting?

A quorum of shareholders is necessary for a valid Annual Meeting. The required quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting is the presence of a holder or holders of 5% of the total outstanding common shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, either present in person or represented by proxy. Abstentions and proxies returned by brokerage firms for which no voting instructions have been received from their principals will be counted for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

If a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of common shares present and voting is required to fix the Board at five members. With respect to the election of the Board, the five director nominees who receive the greatest number of votes cast by common shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be elected as directors. The affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of common shares present and voting is required to ratify the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP, as our independent registered public accountants for 2007, provided such common shares voting affirmatively also constitute a majority of the number of common shares required for a quorum. The affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of common shares present and voting is required to approve amendments to our Bylaws, provided such common shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote also constitute at least $33\frac{1}{3}\%$ of the number of outstanding common shares eligible to vote at the Annual Meeting. A special resolution of shareholders is required to approve amendments to our Articles that authorize us to issue preferred shares. A special resolution requires 66 2/3 % of those present at the Annual Meeting to vote in favor of the special resolution.

How do I vote?

If you are the record holder of your common shares, you may vote in one of two ways. You may vote by submitting your proxy by mail, or you may vote in person at the Annual Meeting.

You may vote by mail

You may vote by completing and signing the proxy card that accompanies this proxy statement and promptly mailing it in the enclosed envelope. The common shares you own will be voted according to the instructions on the proxy card you mail. If you return the proxy card but do not give any instructions on a particular matter described in this proxy statement, the common shares you own will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of our Board of Directors. In order to be valid and acted upon at the Annual Meeting, forms of proxy must be received by our registrar and transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Corporation, Attention: Proxy Department, 200 Queens Quay East, Unit 6, Toronto, Ontario, M5A 4K9, at least 24 hours before the time of the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof, excluding weekends and holidays.

You may vote in person

If you attend the Annual Meeting, you may vote by delivering your completed proxy card in person or you may vote by completing a ballot. Ballots will be available at the Annual Meeting.

Can I change my vote after I have mailed my proxy card?

Yes. You can change your vote and revoke your proxy at any time before the polls close at the Annual Meeting by doing any one of the following things:

- Signing another proxy with a later date;
- Giving our secretary a written notice before or at the Annual Meeting that you want to revoke your proxy; or
- Voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Your attendance at the Annual Meeting alone will not revoke your proxy.

Can I vote if my shares are held in “street name”?

If the shares you own are held in “street name” by a bank or brokerage firm, your bank or brokerage firm, as the record holder of your common shares, is required to vote your shares according to your instructions. In order to vote your common shares, you will need to follow the directions your bank or brokerage firm provides you.

How does the Board of Directors recommend that I vote on the proposals?

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote:

- “FOR” fixing the Board of Directors at five members;
- “FOR” the election of each of the five nominees to serve as directors on the Board of Directors;
- “FOR” the ratification of the Audit Committee’s appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP, as our independent registered public accountants for the year ending December 31, 2007;
- “FOR” the approval of amendments to our Bylaws; and
- “FOR” the approval of an amendment to our Articles to add preferred shares to the authorized capital of the Company.

Table of Contents

Will any other business be conducted at the Annual Meeting or will other matters be voted on?

The Board of Directors does not know of any other matters that may come before the Annual Meeting. If any other matter properly comes before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the proxy card that accompanies this proxy statement, whether you submit your proxy in person or by mail will exercise their judgment in deciding how to vote, or otherwise act, at the Annual Meeting with respect to that matter or proposal.

Where can I find the voting results?

We will report the voting results in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2007, which we expect to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission in August 2007.

What are the costs of soliciting these proxies?

We will bear the costs of solicitation of proxies. Our directors, officers and regular employees may solicit proxies by telephone, email and personal interviews without additional remuneration. Brokers, custodians and fiduciaries will be requested to forward proxy soliciting material to the owners of our common shares that they hold in their names. We will reimburse banks and brokers for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the distribution of our proxy materials.

Remuneration Committee

Executive compensation is the responsibility of the Remuneration Committee. The Remuneration Committee operates under a written charter, or the "Terms of Reference," adopted by the Board of Directors. Messrs. Badwi, Crow, Kapuscinski and Selser are members of the Board of Directors and the Remuneration Committee. Mr. Badwi is the Remuneration Committee Chairman. Each member of the Remuneration Committee qualifies as an independent director under the American Stock Exchange listing standards and National Policy 58-201.

Table of Contents

The aim of the Remuneration Committee is to award and compensate officers and employees in a manner which provides incentives for the enhancement of shareholder value, for the successful implementation of the Company's business plan and for continuous improvement in corporate and personal performance. The compensation program is based on a pay-for-performance philosophy and consists of three components: base salary, annual incentive (bonus) paid in cash and long-term equity based incentive.

The Remuneration Committee reviews and recommends the compensation philosophy and guidelines for the Company which include reviewing the compensation philosophy and guidelines (a) for executive management, for recommendation to the Board for its consideration and approval, and (b) relating to all employees, including annual salary and incentive policies and programs, and material new benefit programs, or material changes to existing benefit programs.

The Remuneration Committee reviews on an annual basis the cash compensation, performance and overall compensation package for each executive officer. It then submits to the Board recommendations with respect to the basic salary, bonus and participation in share compensation arrangements for each executive officer. Receiving recommendations from management for the 2006 and 2007 salaries for Executive Management and employees of the Company, the Remuneration Committee made its recommendations to the Board for approval. In conducting its review of management's recommendations, the Remuneration Committee was satisfied that all recommendations complied with the Remuneration Committee's philosophy and guidelines. Additionally the Remuneration Committee at the request of the Board, has undertaken to retain a firm to prepare a summary regarding current executive compensation environment practices in today's market and investor expectations.

Reserve Committee

The Reserve Committee is comprised of Mr. Badwi (Chairman) and Messrs. Crow, Kapuscinski and Selser. Its responsibilities include:

- Reviewing our procedures for providing information to the independent qualified reserve evaluator;
- Annual meetings with the independent qualified reserve evaluator to determine whether there are any restrictions that could affect the ability of the evaluator to report without reservation; and
- Reviewing our reserve data with management and the independent qualified reserve evaluator.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The following Compensation Discussion and Analysis explains our compensation objectives, philosophy and practices with respect to our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, who are referred to as Named Executive Officers. These individuals are our only executive officers.

Remuneration Committee

As discussed above, executive compensation is the responsibility of the Remuneration Committee.

Compensation Consultants

The Remuneration Committee does not generally engage a compensation consultant to provide advice with respect to the amount or form of executive and director compensation.

Role of Named Executive Officers in Establishing Compensation

The compensation of our Chief Executive Officer is determined by the Remuneration Committee. In determining the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, the Remuneration Committee takes into account the Chief Executive Officer's responsibilities and performance, the Company's performance and the market in which the Company competes for executive talent. The Chief Executive Officer does not attend any meetings related to his compensation. The compensation of our Chief Financial Officer is determined by the Remuneration Committee, after receiving the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer. The recommendations are based on an assessment of the Chief Financial Officer's responsibilities and performance, the Company's performance and the market in which the Company competes for executive talent. The Chief Executive Officer attends those portions of the meetings of the Remuneration Committee that are related to the Chief Financial Officer's compensation.

Compensation Philosophy

Our compensation programs for Named Executive Officers are designed to achieve the following objectives:

- Attract and retain highly talented individuals who will engage in behavior essential to our success;
- Motivate and reward employee behavior that is critical to our success;
- Align the interests of our Named Executive Officers and our shareholders by motivating our Named Executive Officers to increase shareholder value and rewarding them when shareholder value increases; and
- Balance annual cash and longer-term equity compensation.

Benchmarking of Compensation

We believe that the compensation of the Named Executive Officers should be competitive with the market in which we compete for executive talent. We gather information about this market by reviewing publicly available information about our competitors and by having discussions with individuals knowledgeable in recruiting executives in the natural gas and oil industry.

Elements of Executive Compensation and Rationale

There are three key elements to our compensation: base salary, annual cash bonus awards and stock-based compensation. We believe that a combination of these three elements balances rewards for current performance and longer term corporate objectives as measured, among other things, by stock performance. The terms of the Named Executive Officers' employment, including their compensation and other benefits, are set forth in employment contracts, described below.

Table of Contents

The Company entered into employment agreements with J. Russell Porter, our President and Chief Executive Officer, and Michael A. Gerlich, our Chief Financial Officer, effective February 24, 2005 and May 17, 2005, respectively. Each agreement renews annually unless terminated in accordance with the provisions of the agreement. Each year the Remuneration Committee determines base salary, bonus and equity awards under each employment agreement, subject to certain provisions of the agreement.

Base Salary. Base pay represents the fixed element of the Named Executive Officer's cash compensation. The base pay reflects the individual's responsibilities, performance, skill set and the market value of that skill set. Base salaries for our Named Executive Officers are set at the beginning of each employment contract anniversary year.

Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Porter's employment agreement, his base salary is initially set at $450,000 but may be adjusted upward or downward at each year's anniversary date at the discretion of the Remuneration Committee, except that in the event that the Remuneration Committee should determine to decrease Mr. Porter's base salary, Mr. Porter has the right to be advised of the basis for this decision and an opportunity to discuss the decision with the Remuneration Committee. In 2006, the Remuneration Committee made no changes to Mr. Porter's base salary, based on its determination that the existing base salary was competitive and appropriate in light of the overall level of corporate activity. Mr. Gerlich's annual compensation is set at $275,000 but may be adjusted upward, or downward, at each year's anniversary date at the discretion of the Remuneration Committee, except that in the case of a downward adjustment, such decrease can generally not be greater than ten percent (10%) per year and no more than twenty percent (20%) in total of his original salary, unless the salary of the Chief Executive Officer has been reduced in certain specified amounts as well. In 2006, the Remuneration Committee made no changes to Mr. Gerlich's base salary, based on its determination that the existing salary was competitive and appropriate in light of Mr. Gerlich's tenure with the Company and the overall level of corporate activity.

Annual Cash Bonus Awards. Our cash bonus awards provide our Named Executive Officers, as well as other employees, an opportunity to earn an annual cash bonus that is based on an evaluation of individual performance and the performance of the Company. Annual cash bonuses are determined for our Named Executive Officers by the Remuneration Committee. In the case of the bonus for the Chief Financial Officer, the Chief Executive Officer makes a recommendation to the Remuneration Committee with respect to the cash bonus. Subject to the terms of the employment agreements relating to the Named Executive Officers, as described below, determinations relating to the amount of the cash bonus are based on an evaluation of the Company's performance over the past year, the Named Executive Officer's performance and the contributions of the Named Executive Officer to the Company's performance. Annual cash bonus awards for our Named Executive Officers are determined at the end of each calendar year. Additional cash bonuses may be awarded to our Named Executive Officers during the year, as determined in the discretion of the Remuneration Committee. Other than annual cash bonuses paid in 2006, no other cash bonuses were paid in 2006.

Mr. Porter's employment contract provides that he is entitled to an annual bonus in an amount which may take the form of cash compensation, the award of stock or stock options, royalty rights or otherwise and that he shall receive an annual cash bonus equal to at least 20% of his annual base salary. The employment agreement further provides that the bonuses shall reflect not only the results of the Company's operations and business, but his contribution as President and Chief Executive Officer. For 2006, Mr. Porter was paid a cash bonus of $225,000, or 50% of his base salary. His bonus for 2006 reflected the Remuneration Committee's positive evaluation of Mr. Porter's leadership during a year that we became a reporting company under United States' securities law, listed on the American Stock Exchange, as well as his success in completing the sale of a significant ownership position in the Company to an industry partner and in raising significant equity capital to finance our expanded exploration activities in East Texas and Australia. No stock awards (other than stock option grants) or royalty awards were made to Mr. Porter in 2006.

Mr. Gerlich's employment contract provides that his first year bonus shall equal at least 20% of his gross salary. In future years, the Remuneration Committee may (but is not obligated) on a yearly basis, or at such more frequent times as it may elect, award Mr. Gerlich a discretionary bonus or bonuses. Such bonuses may take the form of cash compensation, the award of stock or stock options, royalty rights or otherwise. A bonus reflects not only the results of our operations and business, but of Mr. Gerlich's contribution to our operations and business. For 2006, Mr. Gerlich was paid a cash bonus of $96,000, or 35% of his base salary. His bonus reflected Mr. Porter's and the Remuneration Committee's positive evaluation of Mr. Gerlich's leadership in establishing an autonomous Houston-based accounting and financial department, in transitioning us from a Canadian reporting company to a United States reporting company listed on the American Stock Exchange, and his contributions in completing the sale of a significant ownership position to an industry partner, and in raising significant equity capital to finance our expanded exploration activities in East Texas and Australia. No stock awards (other than stock option grants) or royalty awards were made to Mr. Gerlich in 2006.

Stock-based Compensation. We believe that equity compensation is the most effective means of linking compensation provided to our Named Executive Officers with increases in shareholders' value. Historically, we have used stock options as the equity compensation vehicle. Stock options are generally granted to new hires at the time of employment and to all others, including our Named Executive Officers, around the time of our Annual Meeting of shareholders. Additional stock options may be granted during the year upon accomplishment of certain corporate goals or as an incentive tool. The Board of Directors has discretionary authority to determine vesting periods of stock options. Typically, vesting periods are over a four year period beginning with 25% of the award vesting on the first anniversary of the date of the grant and an additional 25% vesting on each of the next three anniversary dates. However, recent stock option grants to our Chief Executive Officer and certain technical managers vest over two years. Other stock options granted on the same date to the Chief Financial Officer and other employees vest over three years. The stock option awards having shorter vesting periods were granted to provide additional shorter term incentive to our Named Executive Officers, certain technical and other employees. All stock options incorporate the following features:

- Existing grants have a term of five or 10 years;
- Grant prices is not less than the closing market price on the date immediately prior to the date of grant;
- Grants do not include "reload" provisions;
- Repricing of options is prohibited, unless approved by the shareholders; and
- Stock options vest over a period of time determined by the Board of Directors.

We continue to use stock options as a long-term incentive vehicle because we believe:

- Stock options align the interests of Named Executive Officers and our other employees with those of the shareholders;
- Stock options foster the long-term perspective necessary for our success since the value received by the recipient from a stock option is based on the growth of the stock price above the stock option exercise price; and
- Stock options help to provide a longer term balance to our overall compensation program.

Pursuant to our stock option plans, the Board of Directors has designated the Remuneration Committee as the committee to administer the granting of stock options. Stock option grants are determined by the Remuneration Committee, based on the recommendations of our Chief Executive Officer, except in the case of stock option grants awarded to the Chief Executive Officer. In determining the number of stock options to be granted to Named Executive Officers, as well as other employees, the Remuneration Committee takes into account the Named Executive Officer's position, the scope of his responsibilities, his ability to affect profits and shareholder value and the individual's past and recent performance.

In 2006, Mr. Porter was granted stock options to acquire an aggregate of 1,150,000 of our common shares, of which 150,000 stock options vest over four years and 1,000,000 stock options vest over two years. In the event of Mr. Porter's termination, with or without cause, all unvested options will vest and be exercisable for a period of 90 days from the date of termination. The 150,000 share grant dated April 5, 2006 was a part of a larger grant of stock options to employees designed to motivate and provide additional employee incentives. The 1,000,000 share grant dated July 14, 2006 was in recognition of Mr. Porter's leadership during a transition year, the completion of the sale of a significant ownership position in us to an industry partner and his success during the year in raising significant equity capital to finance our expanded exploration activities in East Texas and Australia.

In 2006, Mr. Gerlich received three grants to acquire a total of 650,000 common shares. Of the 250,000 share grant dated January 16, 2006, 125,000 stock options were granted pursuant to his employment agreement and 125,000 stock options were granted in recognition of our successful transition from a Canadian reporting company to a United States reporting company listed on the American Stock Exchange. The 100,000 share grant dated April 5, 2006 was a part of the larger grant of stock option to employees described above. The 300,000 share grant dated July 14, 2006 was in recognition of Mr. Gerlich's successful establishment of an autonomous Houston-based accounting and financial department, his role in our transition to a United States reporting company and his contributions to our capital raising program.

Perquisites. The Named Executive Officers are eligible to participate in the same comprehensive benefits as are offered to all full-time employees. Mr. Porter's employment agreement provides that we will pay or reimburse Mr. Porter up to $25,000 for his membership dues in such clubs and/or organizations as are reasonable and customary for a senior executive officer and will reimburse him for the cost of a yearly executive physical examination and all required or recommended medical testing in connection with that yearly examination.

We paid, or reimbursed, Mr. Porter a total of $95,892 during 2006. Of this amount, $19,962 related to the rental and related utility costs for an apartment in Houston, Texas; $41,264 related to the rental of an office in Miami, Florida (our Chief Executive Officer's city of residence); and $13,274 related to the use of a rental car while in Houston. The balance of $21,392 was related to airfare between Houston and Miami, club dues, an executive health physical examination and the Company's contribution to Mr. Porter's 401-K plan. Each of the items was incurred by or on behalf of Mr. Porter in the ordinary course of business or for his convenience and was considered reasonable and customary perquisites for a senior executive officer.

Other than the comprehensive benefits offered to all full-time employees, Mr. Gerlich did not receive any perquisites having a value over $10,000 in aggregate during 2006.

Post Termination or Change of Control Compensation and Benefits

Mr. Porter's employment agreement provides that his employment shall terminate (i) without notice upon his death; (ii) without notice upon his "Disability", as defined in his employment contract; (iii) upon six month's written notice to the Company by Mr. Porter for any or no reason, with or without cause; (iv) upon one year's written notice to Mr. Porter by the Company for any or no reason, with or without cause; or (v) by the Company without prior notice upon a showing of "Reasonable Cause" (as defined in his employment contract).

Mr. Gerlich's employment agreement provides that his employment shall terminate (i) without notice, upon his death; (ii) without notice, upon his "Disability", as defined in his employment contract; (iii) upon two month's written notice to the Company by Mr. Gerlich for any or no reason, with or without cause; (iv) if there is a "change of control", as defined in his employment contract and that "change in control" results in a material change in the scope of Mr. Gerlich's duties and responsibilities such that he terminates his employment; (v) upon two month's written notice to Mr. Gerlich by the Company for any or no reason, with or without cause; (vi) or by the Company without prior notice, upon a showing of "Reasonable Cause" (as defined in his employment contract).

Pursuant to the terms of their respective employment agreements, Messrs. Porter and Gerlich are entitled to receive certain post termination compensation and benefits. These benefits were determined in the negotiations with each individual and were based on what the Board of Directors determined were elements of a competitive compensation arrangement at the time. See "Potential Payments upon Termination or Change of Control" below.

Table of Contents

On March 23, 2007, our Board of Directors approved a change of control severance plan covering all employees, including the Named Executive Officers. The purpose of the severance plan is to promote stability and continuity of management and regular employees in the event a change of control transaction should occur. A change of control is defined in the severance plan to mean (1) the consummation of a merger, consolidation, reorganization or other transaction whereby our shareholders retain less than 50% control, directly or indirectly, of us or the surviving company, (2) our incumbent directors cease to constitute a majority of the board of directors or (3) a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets. The severance plan does not change the specific, non-change of control severance payments in place under the existing employment contracts with our Named Executive Officers but does provide change of control severance benefits to the Named Executive Officers only if they are greater than the severance benefits provided under the employment agreement. The change of control severance plan does not allow for any duplication of severance benefits.

For the Named Executive Officers, the severance plan provides that if a Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated within two years following a change of control for any reason other than (i) death, (ii) disability, (iii) by us for "cause", or (iv) by the Named Executive Officer for other than a "good reason", the Named Executive Officer will receive a lump-sum payment equal to a multiple that is equal to the applicable severance period, as set forth in the change of control severance plan, times the sum of (1) his annual salary and (2) annual target bonus.

The following summarizes the severance periods and target bonus percentages for the Named Executive Officers:

Named Executive Officer	Severance	Target
	Period in Years	Bonus Percentage
Chief Executive Officer	3.00	50%
Chief Financial Officer	2.50	35%

Additionally, during the applicable severance period, Named Executive Officers would receive reimbursement for the cost of COBRA continuation health care coverage, less the amount charged at the time of termination to the employee for their medical coverage.

If the Named Executive Officer receives a payment or benefit that is subject to the "golden parachute" excise tax, the Named Executive Officer will receive an additional payment under the severance plan to make him or her "whole" for that excise tax and any taxes on the additional parachute tax gross-up payment.

If the individual's employment is terminated within six months prior to a change of control and it is reasonably shown to have been in connection with the change of control, then the change of control will be treated, with respect to that employee, as having occurred prior to his or her termination.

- (2) Mr. Porter's employment contract does not specifically address a change of control situation. It does however provide that he may terminate his own employment for any or no reason, with or without cause, upon six months written notice. In such case, his severance would be determined as provided in footnote 1 above.
Mr. Gerlich's employment contract provides that if a change in control (as defined in his employment agreement) results in material change in the scope of his duties and responsibilities, he will be entitled to receive a severance payment in the form and amount as determined in footnote 1 above.
- (3) Per their respective employment agreements, we are not obligated to pay any amounts to Mr. Gerlich or Mr. Porter, other than accrued and unused vacation days and their pro-rata base salary through the date of his termination of employment, as a result of a termination for reasonable cause (as defined in their respective employment agreements).
- (4) Per their respective employment agreements, if Mr. Porter's or Mr. Gerlich's employment terminates due to death, his eligible beneficiary will be entitled to receive his severance payment over the severance period described in footnote 1 above. If Mr. Porter's or Mr. Gerlich's employment terminates due to a disability (as defined in their respective employment agreements), he shall be entitled to receive a severance payment in the form and amount as determined in footnote 1 above.

Mr. Gerlich's employment agreement provides that, unless specifically pre-approved by the Chief Executive Officer in writing, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld, Mr. Gerlich will not directly compete (as defined in the employment agreement) with us for a period of two years following his termination of employment.

Mr. Porter's employment agreement contains a confidentiality provision applicable both during the term of his employment and following his termination of employment. Pursuant to the confidentiality provision, Mr. Porter agrees to hold in confidence and not disclose any confidential information about our business, except as required in the ordinary course of performing his employment duties with us. A breach of this confidentiality provision could result in a reasonable cause termination. - (1) The fair values of stock option awards were determined in accordance with SFAS 123(R) by using the Black-Scholes-Merton valuation model as of the date of grant. See “Equity Compensation Plans-Determining Fair Value under SFAS 123(R)” in Note 10 to the consolidated financial statements in this Form 10-K for a discussion of assumptions made in the valuation of option awards. The amounts shown in this column represent the stock-based compensation expense recognized by the Company during the year ended December 31, 2006 that was attributable to stock options granted to directors. Total fair value attributable to stock options granted to Mr. Badwi, Crow and Kapuscinski during 2006 as of the date of grant was $640,000, $384,000 and $384,000, respectively. During 2006, Messrs. Badwi, Crow and Kapuscinski were awarded stock options to purchase 500,000, 300,000 and 300,000 common shares, respectively. We have granted to our directors stock options in addition to their specified compensation to be paid as directors. These grants are, in part, to compensate our directors for the stricter regulatory role in which they have to operate and to provide them with incentives to remain as a director by offering them a long term stake in our potential future value. In determining the number of stock options granted, consideration was given to the number of stock options granted to the Named Executive Officer, as well as to management. Additional consideration was given to Mr. Badwi, who serves as the chairman of the Audit Committee, as well as other committees of the Board of Directors.
- (2) As permitted by the rules promulgated by the SEC, no amounts are shown with respect to perquisites and personal benefits for a director if the total value of all perquisites and personal benefits is less than $10,000.
- (3) Mr. Robinson resigned as Chairman of the Board effective August 1, 2006. During 2006, while serving Chairman, he waived receipt of his director’s fees and received no stock option grants.
- (4) Mr. Heysel did not stand for reelection at the annual meeting of shareholders held June 1, 2006. During 2006, while serving as a director, he did not receive any director’s fees for meeting attendance and received no stock option grants.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Chesapeake Corporation

On November 4, 2005, the Company completed an integrated transaction with Chesapeake whereby Chesapeake acquired 27,151,641 million newly issued Company common shares equal to 19.9% of the then outstanding common shares, acquired a 33.3% working interest in the Company's Bossier play in the Hilltop area of East Texas and formed an area of mutual interest to explore jointly in 13 counties in East Texas. As part of this transaction, Chesapeake paid an additional $7.8 million, before fees and expenses, to reimburse the Company for Chesapeake's pro rata share of leasehold interests acquired and to pay a disproportionate amount of future drilling costs in exchange for an undivided 33.3% of the Company's leasehold working interests in the deep Bossier Hilltop prospect, less and except 160 acres surrounding each existing well bore. Chesapeake agreed to pay 44.44% of the drilling costs through casing point in the first six wells drilled by the parties in the Hilltop prospect to a depth sufficient to test the deep Bossier formation (an approximate depth of 19,000 feet) in order to earn its 33.33% leasehold working interest. The leasehold reimbursement was recorded as a reduction to natural gas and oil property cost. The Company utilized a portion of the proceeds of the Chesapeake transaction to pay the New Geostar Subordinated Note in full.

As a result of its purchase of common shares, Chesapeake has the right to negotiate exclusively with the Company for a period of 30 days on any proposed sale of assets. Additionally, Chesapeake has the right, with certain exceptions, to maintain its percentage ownership of the Company, on a fully diluted basis, by participating in future stock issuances and has the right to an observer being present at meetings of the Board of Directors.

On November 11, 2006, Chesapeake acquired an additional 5,000,000 common shares in a private placement transaction to institutional investors. As of December 31, 2006, Chesapeake owned 32,191,641 common shares, or 16.5% of the Company's outstanding common shares.

Geostar Corporation

As of December 31, 2006, Geostar was the beneficial owner of approximately 8.1% of the Company's common shares, based on SEC filings. Our former Chairman of the Board who resigned August 1, 2006 is President and a major shareholder of Geostar. In 2001, the Company entered into a Participation and Operating Agreement (the "POA") with Geostar. The POA governed the joint activities of Geostar and Company in relation to United States and Australian property acquisition and exploration and development operations. In 2005, the POA was cancelled as it related to properties located in Texas and Wyoming as a result of the Geostar Acquisition. Although the POA expired by its terms on June 15, 2006, the joint interest billing activity between the parties has continued with respect to interests in Victoria Australia and West Virginia pursuant to the POA.

Pursuant to the Geostar Acquisition, Geostar may receive additional common shares based on look-backs at June 30, 2006 and June 30, 2007 on the East Texas assets, based on a required number of drilled wells, and net reserve additions valued at $1.50 per Mcf less attributable development expenditures to Geostar's acquired interest. The look-back calculations are to be based on a third party engineering report and calculated within 60 days of receipt of the engineering report. Common shares to be issued, if any, are to be based on the five day weighted average trading price on the day preceding the actual payment of shares, discounted by ten percent. Based on Geostar's look-back analysis at June 30, 2006, no additional shares are due to Geostar at this time. Geostar is still awaiting confirmation of Geostar's June 30, 2006 look-back review results.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS, FEES AND POLICIES

On January 10, 2006, our Board of Directors determined, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, to appoint BDO Seidman, LLP as the Company's independent registered public accountants for the year ending December 31, 2005, replacing BDO Dunwoody LLP, which resigned as auditors effective on the same date. The change in the Company's independent registered public accountants was a result of the Company's adoption of United States generally accepted accounting principles.

The audit reports of BDO Dunwoody LLP on the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the two years ended December 31, 2005 and 2006, there were no disagreements between the Company and BDO Seidman, LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or audit scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to BDO Seidman, LLP's satisfaction, would have caused BDO Seidman, LLP to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports. None of the reportable events described under Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K occurred within the two most recent years of the Company ended December 31, 2005 and 2006 and subsequent interim periods to the date hereof.

Table of Contents

During the two years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 and prior to the engagement of BDO Seidman, LLP on January 10, 2006, the Company did not consult with BDO Seidman, LLP regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) (except as described below) and in Item 304(a)(2)(ii) of Regulation S-K.

During 2005, the Company and BDO Dunwoody LLP consulted with BDO Seidman, LLP with respect to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1 (Registration No. 333-127498).

Fees

As described above, BDO Seidman, LLP was appointed as the Company's independent registered public accountants on January 10, 2006 replacing its Canadian based affiliate, BDO Dunwoody LLP, independent registered public accountants. Aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered to us by BDO Seidman, LLP and BDO Dunwoody LLP, for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 were:

PARTICULARS OF MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON AT THE 2007 ANNUAL MEETING

Proposal 1. Fixing the Number of Directors at Five

The Company's Board of Directors is currently fixed by the shareholders at five members. Five persons have been proposed for election to the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting. The Restated Articles of the Company provide that the Board of Directors be comprised of a minimum of three and a maximum of fifteen members. The Bylaws of the Company require the shareholders to fix the number of the Board of Directors. Accordingly, a proposal to fix the number of members of the Board of Directors at five is being presented to shareholders for approval at the Annual Meeting.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS VOTING "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO FIX THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AT FIVE.

Proposal 2. Election of the Board of Directors

As of the record date, there are five directors of the Company, the terms of each of which will expire on the date of the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Based upon the recommendation of the Nomination Committee, Messrs. Badwi, Crow, Kapuscinski and Porter have been nominated for re-election and Mr. Selser has been nominated for election to the Board of Directors at this 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. If any nominee should become unavailable for election, your proxy may be voted for a substitute nominee selected by the Board, or the Board's size may be reduced accordingly. The Board is unaware of any circumstances likely to render any nominee unavailable. Directors of the Company hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders, until successors are elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation or removal. The following biographies set forth information as of April 27, 2007 concerning the nominees for directors.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE “FOR” THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE DIRECTOR NOMINEES.

Unless otherwise directed, it is management’s intention to vote the proxies in favor of an ordinary resolution to ratify the appointment of the firm of BDO Seidman, LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company.

The affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of common shares present and voting is required to ratify the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP.

Proposal 4. To Approve Amendments to our Bylaws To Clarify the Indemnification Rights of the Directors and Officers

On December 13, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company approved amendments to the Company's Bylaws. All changes to the Company's Bylaws that are approved by the Company's Board of Directors are permissible and are provided for pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) but are subject to shareholder approval by an ordinary resolution.

Reasons for Proposed Amendment

The changes were made to clarify the indemnification rights of the directors and officers within Article VIII of the Bylaws, as summarized below:

- Mandatory advancement of expenses to directors with respect to indemnification for proceedings;
- Mandatory indemnification to directors, subject to court approval, for actions brought by or in the name of the Company;
- Indemnification for expenses incurred in respect of threatened litigation; and
- Entitlement to payment of attorneys fees that directors/officers incur in litigating with the Company their right to receive indemnity payments from the Company whether successful or not.

The foregoing rights/entitlements are subject to the director or officer meeting the following standard of conduct:

- (a) The director or officer acting honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company; and
- (b) In the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the director or officer having reasonable grounds for believing that the director's or officer's conduct was lawful.

The amended Bylaws as per this proposal are set forth in Appendix B. Shareholders are urged to carefully read Appendix B.

The affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of common shares present and voting is required to approve changes to our Bylaws, provided such common shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote also constitute at least 33 1/3 % of the number of outstanding common shares eligible to vote at the Annual Meeting.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE AMENDMENTS TO THE COMPANY'S BYLAWS TO CLARIFY THE INDEMNIFICATION RIGHTS OF THE DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Proposal 5. To Approve by a Special Resolution an Amendment to our Articles to add Preferred Shares to the Authorized Capital of the Company

Reasons for Proposed Amendment

Our Articles currently do not contain any provisions whereby we can issue preferred shares. We are seeking shareholder approval of a special resolution ("Special Resolution") to amend our Articles to provide us with the ability to issue preferred shares, which will in turn provide us with greater flexibility when raising capital. We have no current plans to issue preferred shares, although we may issue preferred shares in the future.

Table of Contents

Descriptions of Preferred Stock

The number of preferred shares which may be issued from time to time will be determined by the Board of Directors and is therefore indeterminate at this time. The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to preferred shares, as a class, will be as follows:

- Issuance in Series . Subject to the filing of Articles of Amendment in accordance with the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) (the “Act”), the Board of Directors may at any time and from time to time issue the Preferred Shares in one or more series, each series to consist of such number of shares as may, before the issuance thereof, be determined by the Board of Directors.
Subject to the filing of Articles of Amendment in accordance with the Act, the Board of Directors may from time to time fix, before issuance, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to each series of Preferred Shares including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the amount, if any, specified as being payable preferentially to such series on a Distribution; the extent, if any, of further participation on a Distribution; voting rights, if any; and dividend rights (including whether such dividends be preferential, or cumulative or non-cumulative), if any.
- Liquidation . In the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, or any other distribution of its assets among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs (such event referred to herein as a “Distribution”), holders of each series of Preferred Shares shall be entitled, in priority to holders of Common Shares and any other shares of the Corporation ranking junior to the Preferred Shares from time to time with respect to payment on a Distribution, to be paid ratably with holders of each other series of Preferred Shares the amount, if any, specified as being payable preferentially to the holders of such series on a Distribution.
- Dividends. The holders of each series of Preferred Shares shall be entitled, in priority to holders of Common Shares and any other shares of the Corporation ranking junior to the Preferred Shares from time to time with respect to the payment of dividends, to be paid ratably with holders of each other series of Preferred Shares, the amount of accumulated dividends, if any, specified as being payable preferentially to the holders of such series.

A copy of the Special Resolution to be presented to shareholders is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix C. A copy of the Share Structure Attached to and Forming Part of the Articles is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix D. Shareholders are urged to carefully read Appendix C and Appendix D.

The adoption of the Special Resolution requires $66 \frac{2}{3} \%$ of those present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting to vote in favor of the Special Resolution.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE “FOR” THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE BY A SPECIAL RESOLUTION THE AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES TO ADD PREFERRED SHARES TO THE AUTHORIZED CAPITAL OF THE COMPANY.

RIGHT TO DISSENT

Under the Business Corporation Act (Alberta) (the “Act”), Gastar shareholders are entitled to send us a written dissent to the Special Resolution. In addition to any other right the holders of common shares may have, once the proposed amendments to our Articles contemplated by this Special Resolution take effect, any Gastar shareholder who follows the Act procedures for exercising a right to dissent will be entitled to receive payment from Gastar of the fair value of the common shares he holds with respect to which he expressed his dissent. This fair value will be determined upon the close of business on the day preceding the adoption of the Special Resolution.

Summary of the Procedure for Exercising the Right to Dissent

The following is a summary of the procedure established in section 191 of the Act that shareholders must follow if they intend to exercise their right to dissent to the Special Resolution and want to request that we purchase their Gastar common shares in exchange for the fair value thereof, determined as of the close of business on the day before the Special Resolution is adopted.

Pursuant to Section 191 of the Act, a registered Gastar shareholder has a right of dissent with respect to the Special Resolution. To exercise such right, the dissenting Gastar shareholder (“Dissenting Shareholder”) must send Gastar a written objection to the Special Resolution. Such written objection must be received by Gastar c/o Michael A. Gerlich, 1331 Lamar Street, Suite 1080, Houston Texas 77010 on the business day before the Meeting and the Dissenting Shareholder must otherwise comply with Section 191 of the Act. Provided the Special Resolution becomes effective, each Dissenting Shareholder will be entitled to be paid the fair value of their shares in respect of which such Dissenting Shareholder dissents in accordance with Section 191 of the ABCA, as modified by the applicable Interim Order. Pursuant to Section 191 of the Act, a Gastar shareholder may not exercise the right of dissent in respect of only a portion of their Gastar common shares and may not vote any Gastar common shares in favor of the Special Resolution.

The provisions respecting the right of dissent are technical and complex. Failure to strictly comply with any of the requirements set forth in Section 191 of the Act may result in the loss of the right of dissent.

Beneficial owners of Gastar common shares whose shares are registered in the name of a broker, custodian, nominee or other intermediary who wish to dissent should be aware that only the registered Gastar shareholder is entitled to dissent. Accordingly, a beneficial owner of Gastar common shares desiring to exercise dissent rights must make arrangements for the Gastar common shares beneficially owned by such Dissenting Shareholder to be registered in his or her name prior to the time the written objection to the Special Resolution is required to be received by Gastar, or alternatively, make arrangements for the registered holder of his or her Gastar common shares to dissent on his or her behalf.

If the Special Resolution is adopted, an application may be made to the Court of Queen’s Bench of Alberta (the “Court”) by the Company or by a Dissenting Shareholder, where the Dissenting Shareholder has sent the required written objection, to fix the fair value of the Dissenting Shareholder’s securities. If such an application to the Court is made by the Company or a Dissenting Shareholder, the Company must, unless the Court otherwise orders, send to each Dissenting Shareholder a written offer to pay the Dissenting Shareholder an amount considered by the Board to be the fair value of the Gastar common shares. The offer, unless the Court otherwise orders, will be sent to each Dissenting Shareholder at least 10 days before the date on which the application is returnable, if the Company is the applicant, or within 10 days after the Company is served with notice of the application, if a Dissenting Shareholder is the applicant. The offer will be made on the same terms to each Dissenting Shareholder and will be accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined. If such offer is not made or is not accepted, the Court shall fix the fair value of the Gastar common shares. If an application is made by either party, the Dissenting Shareholder will be entitled to be paid the amount fixed by the Court for the Gastar common shares in respect of which the Dissenting Shareholder dissented.

A Dissenting Shareholder may make an agreement with the Company for the purchase of their common shares in the amount of the offer made by the Company (or otherwise) at any time before the Court pronounces an order fixing the fair value of the common shares.

A Dissenting Shareholder is not required to give security for costs in respect of an application and, except in special circumstances, will not be required to pay the costs of the application or appraisal. On the application, the Court will make an order fixing the fair value of the common shares of all Dissenting Shareholders who are parties to the application, giving judgment in that amount against the Company and in favor of each of those Dissenting Shareholders, and fixing the time within which the Company must pay that amount payable to the

Dissenting Shareholders. The Court may in its discretion allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each Dissenting Shareholder calculated from the date on which the Dissenting Shareholder ceases to have any rights as a Gastar shareholder until the date of payment.

On the Special Resolution becoming effective by issuance of a Certificate of Amendment, or upon the making of an agreement between the Company and the Dissenting Shareholder as to the payment to be made by the Corporation to the Dissenting Shareholder, or upon the pronouncement of a Court order, whichever first occurs, the Gastar shareholder will cease to have any rights as a shareholder other than the right to be paid the fair value of such holder's common shares, in the amount agreed to between the Company and the shareholder or in the amount of the judgment, as the case may be. Until one of these events occurs, the shareholder may withdraw the shareholder's dissent, or the Corporation may rescind the Special Resolution if not acted upon, and in either event the dissent and appraisal proceedings in respect of that Gastar shareholder will be discontinued.

The Company shall not make a payment to a Dissenting Shareholder under Section 191 if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the Company is or would be, after the payment, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due, or that the realizable value of the assets of the Company would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities. In such event, the Company shall notify each Dissenting Shareholder that it is unable lawfully to pay Dissenting Shareholders for the common shares, in which case the Dissenting Shareholder may, by written notice to the Corporation within 30 days after receipt of such notice, withdraw such holder's written objection, in which case the Company shall, subject to the terms of the Special Resolution, be deemed to consent to the withdrawals and such Dissenting Shareholder shall be reinstated with full rights as a shareholder, failing which such Dissenting Shareholder retains a status as a claimant against the Company to be paid as soon as the Company is lawfully entitled to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the Company but in priority to its shareholders.

All common shares held by shareholders who exercise their right of dissent will, if the holders are ultimately entitled to be paid the fair value thereof, be deemed to have transferred such common shares to Gastar for cancellation immediately prior to the issuance of a Certificate of Amendment with respect to the Special Resolution and such common shares shall be deemed to no longer be issued and outstanding as of that time, in exchange for such fair value.

The above text is only a summary of the highly technical and complex provisions of the Act respecting Dissenting Shareholders. You will find a complete version of these provisions in Appendix E of this Proxy Statement. Company shareholders who would like to exercise their right to dissent should seek the advice of legal advisors, as failure to comply strictly with the Act provisions could entail the loss of their right to dissent or ability to avail themselves of their rights thereunder.

Any Dissenting Shareholder who fails to abide by all Act requirements for the exercise of the right to dissent risks losing this right under the law. Executing or exercising a proxy does not constitute a written objection for the purposes of the Act.

Our Board of Directors reserves the right, at its discretion, to refrain from submitting the Special Resolution to shareholders or not to submit the Articles of Amendment to the Registrar pursuant to the Act, if the number of Dissenting Shareholders is considered too high, or if, for any other reason, our Board deems it is not in the best interests of Gastar to follow through on the proposed amendment of our Articles set out in the Special Resolution.

Events Subsequent to the Approval

Should the shareholders approve the Special Resolution in the manner described above, we will file the Articles of Amendment necessary to give effect to the proposed amendments promptly following the Meeting, unless our directors repeal the special Resolution prior to filing the Articles of Amendment.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS AND NOMINATIONS

Any shareholder who wishes to submit a proposal for inclusion in the proxy materials for the Company's 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must comply with Rule 14a-8 under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The number of Directors at any one time may not be less than the minimum or more than the maximum number permitted by the Articles.

4. INCREASE NUMBER The Shareholders may amend the Articles to increase the number, or the minimum or maximum number, of Directors. Upon the adoption of an amendment increasing the number or minimum number of Directors, the Shareholders may, at the meeting at which they adopt the amendment, elect the additional number of Directors authorized by the amendment. Upon the issue of a certificate of amendment, the Articles are deemed to be amended as of the date the Shareholders adopted the amendment.

5. DECREASE NUMBER The Shareholders may amend the Articles to decrease the number, or the minimum or maximum number, of Directors. No decrease shortens the term of an incumbent Director.

6. ELECTION AND TERM Each Director named in the notice of directors filed at the time of incorporation holds office from the issue of the certificate of incorporation until the first meeting of Shareholders. The Shareholders are to elect Directors by ordinary resolution at the first meeting of Shareholders and at each succeeding annual meeting at which an election of Directors is required. The elected Directors are to hold office for a term expiring not later than the close of the next annual meeting of Shareholders following the election. A Director not elected for an expressly stated term ceases to hold office at the close of the first annual meeting of Shareholders following the Director's election. If Directors are not elected at a meeting of Shareholders, the incumbent Directors continue in office until their respective successors are elected.

7. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS The Shareholders may by ordinary resolution passed at a special meeting of Shareholders remove a Director from office. If there is not a quorum of Directors, or if there has been a failure to elect the number or minimum number of Directors required by the Articles, the Directors then in office must immediately call a special meeting of Shareholders to fill the vacancy. If the Directors fail to call a meeting, or if there are no Directors then in office, the meeting may be called by any Shareholder.

- (h) approve any financial statements; or
- (i) adopt, amend or repeal By-laws.

12. REMUNERATION AND EXPENSES The Directors are entitled to receive remuneration for their services in the amount the Board determines. Subject to the Board's approval, the Directors are also entitled to be reimbursed for traveling and other expenses incurred by them in attending meetings of the Board or any committee of Directors or in the performance of their duties as Directors.

Nothing contained in the By-laws precludes a Director from serving the Corporation in another capacity and receiving remuneration for acting in that other capacity.

The Directors must disclose to the Shareholders the aggregate remuneration paid to the Directors. The disclosure must be in a written document to be placed before the Shareholders at every annual meeting of Shareholders and must relate to the same time period as the financial statements required to be presented at the meeting relate to.

13. ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS The Board must place before the Shareholders at every annual meeting of Shareholders financial statements which have been approved by the Board as evidenced by the signature of one or more of the Directors, the report of the auditor and any further information respecting the financial position of the Corporation and the results of its operations that is required by the ABCA, the Regulations, the Articles, the By-laws or any unanimous shareholder agreement.

3. NOTICE OF ADJOURNED MEETING Notice of an adjourned meeting of Directors is not required if a quorum is present at the original meeting and if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting. If a meeting is adjourned because a quorum is not present, notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting must be given as for the original meeting. The adjourned meeting may proceed with the business to have been transacted at the original meeting, even though a quorum is not present at the adjourned meeting.

4. MEETINGS WITHOUT NOTICE No notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors needs to be given:

- (a) to a newly elected Board following its election at an annual or special meeting of Shareholders; or if a quorum is present.

5. WAIVER OF NOTICE A Director may waive, in any manner, notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors. 10. MEETING BY TELEPHONE If all the Directors consent, a Director may participate in a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors by means of telephone or other communication facilities that permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A Director participating in a meeting by means of telephone or other communication facilities is deemed to be present at the meeting.

11. RESOLUTION IN LIEU OF MEETING A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of Directors or committee of Directors is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors or committee of Directors. A resolution in writing takes effect on the date it is expressed to be effective.

A resolution in writing may be signed in one or more counterparts, all of which together constitute the same resolution. A counterpart signed by a Director and transmitted by facsimile or other device capable of transmitting a printed message is as valid as an originally signed counterpart.

- (a) is a party to a material contract or proposed material contract with the Corporation; or
 - (b) is a director or an officer of or has a material interest in any person who is a party to a material contract or proposed material contract with the Corporation, must disclose in writing to the Corporation or request to have entered in the minutes of meetings of the Directors the nature and extent of the Director's or Officer's interest.

2. APPROVAL AND VOTING A Director or Officer must disclose in writing to the Corporation, or request to have entered in the minutes of meetings of Directors, the nature and extent of the Director's or Officer's interest in a material contract or proposed material contract if the contract is one that in the ordinary course of the Corporation's business would not require approval by the Board or the Shareholders. The disclosure must be made immediately after the Director or Officer becomes aware of the contract or proposed contract. A Director who is required to disclose an interest in a material contract or proposed material contract may not vote on any resolution to approve the contract unless the contract is:

If a material contract is made between the Corporation and a Director or Officer, or between the Corporation and another person of which a Director or Officer is a director or officer or in which the Director or Officer has a material interest:

(a) the contract is neither void nor voidable by reason only of that relationship, or by reason only that a Director with an interest in the contract is present at or is counted to determine the presence of a quorum at a meeting of Directors or committee of Directors that authorized the contract; and

(b) a Director or Officer or former Director or Officer to whom a profit accrues as a result of the making of the contract is not liable to account to the Corporation for that profit by reason only of holding office as a Director or Officer, if the Director or Officer disclosed the Director's or Officer's interest in the contract in the manner prescribed by the ABCA and the contract was approved by the Board or the Shareholders and was reasonable and fair to the Corporation at the time it was approved.

SECTION VIII LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

1. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY Every Director and Officer in exercising the powers and discharging the duties of office must act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation and must exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. No Director or Officer is liable for:

Table of Contents

2. INDEMNITY The Corporation shall indemnify a Director or Officer, a former Director or Officer and a person who acts or acted at the Corporation's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the Corporation is or was a shareholder or creditor (the "Indemnified Parties") and the heirs and legal representatives of each of them, against all costs, charges and expenses, which includes, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the fees, charges and disbursements of legal counsel on an as-between-a-solicitor-and-the-solicitor's-own-client basis and an amount paid to settle a threatened or actual action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by an Indemnified Party, or the heirs or legal representatives of an Indemnified Party, or both, in respect of any threatened or actual action or proceeding to which any of them is made a party by reason of an Indemnified Party being or having been a Director or Officer or a director or officer of that body corporate, if the Indemnified Party met the following standard of conduct (the "Standard of Conduct"):

- (a) the Indemnified Party acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation; and
- (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the Indemnified Party had reasonable grounds for believing that the Indemnified Party's conduct was lawful.

The Corporation shall, subject to court approval, indemnify an Indemnified Party in respect of a threatened or actual action by or on behalf of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favour, to which the Indemnified Person is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or an officer of the Corporation or body corporate, against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the Indemnified Person in connection with the action if the Indemnified Party meets the Standard of Conduct set out in subsections (a) and (b) above.

Expenses to be incurred by the Indemnified Party on an as – between – a – solicitor – and – the – solicitor's – own – client basis in respect to indemnification for proceedings described in this subsection 2 shall be indemnified by the Corporation irrespective whether the Indemnified Party is successful in the litigation if the Indemnified Party meets the Standard of Conduct set out in subsections (a) and (b) above.

The Corporation shall advance funds to Indemnified Parties in order to defray the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to in subsection (2), but if the Indemnified Party does not meet the Standard of Conduct set out in subsection 2(a) and (b) he or she shall repay the funds advanced.

The Corporation shall indemnify an Indemnified Party and the heirs and legal representatives of an Indemnified Party in any other circumstances that the ABCA permits or requires.

Nothing in this By-law limits the right of a person entitled to indemnity to claim indemnity apart from the provisions of this By-law.

Subject to the Act, no revocation of, change in, or adoption of any resolution or provision in the Articles of Incorporation or bylaws of the Corporation inconsistent with this Section 2 of Article VIII shall adversely affect the rights of any current or former Director or Officer with respect to (i) any proceeding commenced or threatened prior to such revocation, change or adoption or (ii) any proceeding arising out of any act or omission occurring prior to such revocation, change or adoption, in either case, without the written consent of such Director or Officer.

If any provision or provisions of this Section 2 of Article VIII shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever: (i) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Section 2 of Article VIII (including, without limitation, each portion of any paragraph of this Section 2 of Article VIII containing such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby and (ii) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Section 2 of Article VIII (including, without limitation, each such portion of any paragraph of this Section 2 of Article VIII containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provision held invalid, illegal or unenforceable.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement or reimbursement of expenses conferred in this Section 2 of Article VIII shall be contract rights. If a claim for:

(i) indemnification pursuant to this Section 2 of Article VIII is not paid in full by the Corporation within 60 days after written demand has been received by the Corporation; or

(ii) advancement or reimbursement of expenses pursuant to this Section 2 of Article VIII is not paid in full by the Corporation within 20 days after written demand has been received by the Corporation, the Indemnified Party may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to be paid also the expenses of prosecuting and defending such suit.

In:

(i) any suit brought by the Indemnified Party to enforce the right to indemnification hereunder (other than a suit brought by the Indemnified Party to enforce a right to an advancement or reimbursement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and

(ii) any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that, the Indemnified Party has not met the relevant Standard of Conduct.

Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its board of directors or independent legal counsel) to have made determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the Indemnified Party is proper in the circumstances because the Indemnified Party has met the relevant Standard of Conduct set forth herein, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its board of directors or independent legal counsel) that the Indemnified Party has not met such Standard of Conduct, shall create a presumption that the Indemnified Party has not met the relevant Standard of Conduct or, in case of a suit brought by the Indemnified Party, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the Indemnified Party to enforce a right indemnification or to an advancement of reimbursement of expenses hereunder, or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement or reimbursement of expenses, under this Section 2 of Article VIII or otherwise by clear and convincing evidence shall be on the Corporation.

3. INSURANCE The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a person referred to in subsection (2) against the liabilities and in the amounts the ABCA permits and the Board approves.

The Board may provide for the registration or transfer of securities by a transfer agent, branch transfer agent or registrar.

6. DEALINGS WITH REGISTERED HOLDERS The Corporation may treat the registered owner of a security as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notices, to receive any interest, dividend or other payments in respect of the security, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner of the security.

(f) the fee prescribed by the Board for a security certificate issued in respect of a transfer has been paid.

9. LIEN If the Articles provide that the Corporation has a lien on a share registered in the name of a Shareholder or the Shareholder's legal representative for a debt of the Shareholder to the Corporation, and the Shareholder is indebted to the Corporation, the Corporation may refuse to register any transfer of the holder's shares pending enforcement of the lien.

10. SECURITY CERTIFICATES Security certificates and acknowledgments of a security holder's right to obtain a security certificate must be in a form the Board approves by resolution. A security certificate must be signed by at least one Director or Officer. Unless the Board otherwise determines, security certificates representing securities in respect of which a transfer agent or registrar has been appointed are not valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the transfer agent or registrar. Any signature may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced on a security certificate. If a security certificate contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a person, the Corporation may issue the security certificate, notwithstanding that the person has ceased to be a Director or Officer, and the security certificate is as valid as if the person were a Director or Officer at the date of issue.

11. ENTITLEMENT TO A SECURITY CERTIFICATE A security holder is entitled at the holder's option to a security certificate or to a non-transferable written acknowledgment of the holder's right to obtain a security certificate from the Corporation in respect of the securities of the Corporation held by that holder.

12. SECURITIES HELD JOINTLY The Corporation is not required to issue more than one security certificate in respect of securities held jointly by several persons. Delivery of a certificate to one of the joint holders is sufficient delivery to all of them. 13. REPLACEMENT OF SECURITY CERTIFICATES The Board or an Officer or agent designated by the Board may in its or the Officer's or agent's discretion direct the issue of a new security certificate in place of a certificate that has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken. 14. FRACTIONAL SHARES The Corporation may issue a certificate for a fractional share or may issue in its place scrip certificates in a form that entitles the holder to receive a certificate for a full share by exchanging scrip certificates aggregating a full share. The Directors may attach conditions to any scrip certificates issued by the Corporation, including conditions that:

(a) the scrip certificates become void if they are not exchanged for a share certificate representing a full share before a specified date; and

(b) any shares for which those scrip certificates are exchangeable may, notwithstanding any pre-emptive right, be issued by the Corporation to any person and the proceeds of those shares distributed rateably to the holders of the scrip certificates.

6. NOTICE OF ADJOURNED MEETINGS With the consent of the Shareholders present at a meeting of Shareholders, the chairperson may adjourn that meeting to another fixed time and place. If a meeting of Shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of less than 30 days, it is not necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting, other than by verbal announcement at the time of the adjournment. If a meeting of Shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as for the original meeting. The adjourned meeting may proceed with the business to have been transacted at the original meeting, even though a quorum is not present at the adjourned meeting.

- (d) at the meeting of Shareholders for which the list was prepared.

9. PERSONS ENTITLED TO VOTE A person named in a list of Shareholders is entitled to vote the shares shown opposite the person's name at the meeting to which the list relates, except to the extent that:

Table of Contents

(d) any others who, although not entitled to vote, are entitled or required under any provision of the ABCA, any unanimous shareholder agreement, the Articles or the By-laws to be present at the meeting.

Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the chairperson of the meeting or with the consent of the meeting.

14. QUORUM A quorum of Shareholders is present at a meeting of Shareholders if a holder or holders of not less than 5% of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders are present in person or by proxy. If any share entitled to be voted at a meeting of Shareholders is held by two or more persons jointly, the persons or those of them who attend the meeting of Shareholders constitute only one Shareholder for the purpose of determining whether a quorum of Shareholders is present.

15. LOSS OF QUORUM If a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting of Shareholders, the Shareholders present or represented by proxy may proceed with the business of the meeting, even if a quorum is not present throughout the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the opening of a meeting of Shareholders, the Shareholders present or represented by proxy may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

16. PROXY HOLDERS AND REPRESENTATIVES A Shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of Shareholders may by means of a proxy appoint a proxy holder and one or more alternate proxy holders, who are not required to be Shareholders, to attend and act at the meeting in the manner and to the extent authorized by the proxy and with the authority conferred by the proxy. A proxy must be executed by the Shareholder or by the Shareholder's attorney authorized in writing and be in the form prescribed by the Regulations. A proxy is valid only at the meeting in respect of which it is given or any adjournment of that meeting.

A Shareholder that is a body corporate or association may, by resolution of its directors or governing body, authorize an individual to represent it in person at a meeting of Shareholders. That individual's authority may be established by depositing with the Corporation prior to the commencement of the meeting a certified copy of the resolution passed by the Shareholder's directors or governing body or other evidence of the individual's authority to vote. A resolution or other evidence of authority to vote is valid only at the meeting in respect of which it is given or any adjournment of that meeting.

17. TIME FOR DEPOSIT OF PROXIES The Board may specify in a notice calling a meeting of Shareholders a time not exceeding 48 hours, excluding Saturdays and holidays, preceding the meeting or an adjournment of the meeting before which proxies to be used at the meeting must be deposited with the Corporation or its agent. If no time for the deposit of proxies has been specified in a notice calling a meeting of Shareholders, a proxy to be used at the meeting must be deposited with the Secretary of the Corporation or the chairperson of the meeting prior to the commencement of the meeting.

18. REVOCAION OF PROXIES A Shareholder may revoke a proxy:

- (a) by depositing an instrument in writing executed by the Shareholder or by the Shareholder's attorney authorized in writing:

- (b) in any other manner permitted by law.

19. JOINT SHAREHOLDERS If two or more persons hold shares jointly, one of those holders present at a meeting of Shareholders may, in the absence of the others, vote the shares. Table of Contents

20. DECISION ON QUESTIONS At every meeting of Shareholders all questions proposed for the consideration of Shareholders must be decided by the majority of votes, unless otherwise required by the ABCA or the Articles. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson of the meeting does not, either on a show of hands or verbal poll or on a ballot, have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the chairperson may be entitled as a Shareholder or proxy holder.

21. VOTING BY SHOW OF HANDS Subject to subsection (22), voting at a meeting of Shareholders shall be by a show of hands of those present in person or represented by proxy or by a verbal poll of those present by telephone or other communication facilities. When a vote by show of hands has been taken upon a question, a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that the vote has been carried, carried by a particular majority or not carried, an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of the question.

22. VOTING BY BALLOT If a ballot is required by the chairperson of the meeting or is demanded by a Shareholder or proxy holder entitled to vote at the meeting, either before or on the declaration of the result of a vote by a show of hands or verbal poll, voting must be by ballot. A demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time before the ballot is taken. If a ballot is taken on a question, a prior vote on that question by show of hands or verbal poll has no effect.

23. NUMBER OF VOTES At every meeting a Shareholder present in person or represented by proxy or present by telephone or other communication facilities and entitled to vote has one vote for each share held.

24. MEETING BY TELEPHONE Any person described in subsection (13) may participate in a meeting of Shareholders by means of telephone or other communication facilities that permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A Shareholder participating in a meeting by means of telephone or other communication facilities is deemed to be present at the meeting.

25. RESOLUTION IN LIEU OF MEETING A resolution in writing signed by all the Shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of Shareholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of Shareholders. A resolution in writing takes effect on the date it is expressed to be effective.

A resolution in writing may be signed in one or more counterparts, all of which together constitute the same resolution. A counterpart signed by a Shareholder and transmitted by facsimile or other device capable of transmitting a printed message is as valid as an originally signed counterpart.

SECTION XI NOTICES

1. METHOD OF NOTICE A notice or document required to be sent to a Shareholder, Director, Officer or auditor of the Corporation may be given by personal delivery, prepaid transmitted or recorded communication or prepaid mail addressed to the recipient at the recipient's Recorded Address. which is sent or delivered to the Shareholder prior to the person's name and address being entered in the Corporation's securities register and prior to the person furnishing proof of authority or evidence of entitlement as prescribed by the ABCA. 4. NON-RECEIPT OF NOTICES If a notice or document is sent to a Shareholder, Director, Officer or auditor of the Corporation in accordance with subsection (1) and the notice or document is returned on three consecutive occasions, the Corporation is not required to give any further notice or documents to the person until that person informs the Corporation in writing of the person's new address.

5. FAILURE TO GIVE NOTICE The accidental failure to give a notice to a Shareholder, Director, Officer or auditor of the Corporation, the non-receipt of a notice by the intended recipient or any error in a notice not affecting its substance does not invalidate any action taken at the meeting to which the notice relates.

6. EXECUTION OF NOTICES Unless otherwise provided, the signature of any person designated by resolution of the Board to sign a notice or document on behalf of the Corporation may be written, stamped, typewritten or printed.
