Guidance Software Expands Global Offering with Atos Partnership

Deal includes distribution of forensic security products and managed services offerings

PASADENA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Guidance Software, the makers of EnCase®, the gold standard for digital investigations and endpoint data security, today announced a global technology and services partnership agreement with Atos, an international leader in digital services with over 100,000 employees in 72 countries.

Under the agreement, Atos will provide industry-leading forensic security products from Guidance Software, including Enforce™ Risk Manager, Encase® Endpoint Security, and Encase Endpoint® Investigator, to customers worldwide. Together, Guidance and Atos will deliver complete service-based solutions to help organizations find, assess, respond to, and remediate hidden cyber threats within their networks.

"Today, organizations face an increasing variety of cybersecurity threats from both inside and outside the traditional network perimeter," said Chris Moret, vice president for cybersecurity at Atos. "This partnership adds best-in-class endpoint detection and response tools from Guidance to our portfolio of security solutions clients use to protect their most valuable systems and data."

Working with Guidance, Atos can deliver unrivaled 360-degree visibility into an organization's data and unmatched automated incident response and remediation capabilities. The agreement announced today will integrate Atos' broad public and private-sector reach into the global partner network at Guidance.

"Guidance is committed to growing our business through strategic global partnerships," said Scott Skidmore, vice president, global channel at Guidance. "Atos is a strategic partner in our strategy to accelerate growth across the globe. At Guidance, we are focused on strengthening our capabilities and services so that our partners have the best forensic security solutions to fit their market needs."

Guidance products and services are available now for purchase through Atos. For more information contact sales@guid.com.
