Guidance Software Selected as 2017 SC Awards Finalist in Best Computer Forensic Solution Category for 7th Consecutive Year

EnCase® Recognized for Innovation in Protecting Companies from Malicious Attacks

PASADENA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Guidance Software, makers of EnCase®, the gold standard for digital investigations and endpoint data security, announced today that, for the seventh consecutive year, SC Magazine included Guidance forensic investigations solutions EnCase Endpoint Investigator and EnCase Forensic as finalists for their Best Computer Forensic Solution Award. Finalists are recognized for outstanding leadership and for providing superior security products to the information security industry. Winners will be announced at the SC Awards 2017 ceremony to be held February 14, 2017 in San Francisco.

"As market pioneers, Guidance has a unique understanding of the complexities of criminal and corporate investigations," said Michael Harris, chief marketing officer at Guidance. "From traditional criminal investigations using EnCase Forensic, to corporate investigations of HR issues, compliance violations, regulatory inquiries, IP theft, and more with EnCase Endpoint Investigator, Guidance solutions continue to deliver outstanding value to our customers. We once again thank SC Media for recognizing Guidance and our products."

"Ransomware, nation-state cyber attacks, IoT vulnerabilities, data privacy issues and more are dominating the headlines right now and it's critical that we amplify the importance of these problems and highlight the actions organizations can take to safeguard their organizations and their critical data assets," said Illena Armstrong, VP, editorial, SC Media. "As bad actors are constantly changing strategy, so too are the men, women and companies endeavoring to stop them in their tracks. These finalists have shown that they are the best at what they do."

The SC Awards, now in their 20th year, are recognized throughout the security industry as the gold standard of excellence in cybersecurity. Winners in the Excellence category are determined by an expert panel of judges, handpicked by SC Magazine's editorial team, for their breadth of knowledge and experience in the information security industry. The Excellence Awards honor the professionals, products and services that have proven to be the best in the industry for protecting today's corporate world from cybercrime.
