

HealthSouth finalizes purchase of New Jersey rehabilitation hospital

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. HealthSouth Corporation (NYSE:HLS) has finalized, through one of its wholly owned subsidiaries, its previously announced purchase of The Rehabilitation Hospital of South Jersey, a 34-bed inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Vineland, NJ, from The Mediplex/Cumberland Rehabilitation Limited Partnership.

"The Rehabilitation Hospital of South Jersey, under the outstanding leadership of Dr. Francis Bonner, has provided exceptional care to patients in the South Jersey area for many years and we look forward to continuing this tradition for many years to come," said Jay Grinney, HealthSouth's president and chief executive officer. "We are very pleased to welcome the hospital to HealthSouth's nationwide network of preeminent rehabilitation hospitals."

The acquisition of The Rehabilitation Hospital of South Jersey adds a third New Jersey rehabilitation hospital to HealthSouth's northeast region. HealthSouth currently operates HealthSouth Rehabilitation Hospital of New Jersey in Toms River and Tinton Falls Rehabilitation Hospital, a Joint Venture of HealthSouth and Monmouth Medical Center, in Tinton Falls.
