

InfoSpace Appoints Jules Haimovitz to Board of Directors

BELLEVUE, WA, Oct 24, 2005 (MARKET WIRE via COMTEX News Network) -- InfoSpace, Inc. (NASDAQ: INSP) today announced the appointment of film and television industry veteran Jules Haimovitz to the Company's Board of Directors, further bolstering its position as the leader in mobile entertainment.

Jules Haimovitz is the Vice-Chairman and Managing Partner of Dick Clark Productions. Prior to Dick Clark Productions, Mr. Haimovitz held the position of President of MGM Networks, where he was responsible for the formation and oversight of MGM networks worldwide, as well as the maximization of revenues generated by the vast MGM film library.

"Jules is a seasoned executive who brings a wealth of experience in entertainment production, distribution and management," said Jim Voelker, chairman and CEO of InfoSpace, Inc. "As we continue to increase our focus on mobile media and entertainment, his expertise will be invaluable to the team."

"I'm excited by the opportunity to use my experience in film and television in the new mobile media category," said Jules Haimovitz. "InfoSpace already has a leadership position in mobile entertainment, and I look forward to leveraging my experience to help the Company expand its position even further."

Prior to MGM, Mr. Haimovitz served as President and Chief Operating Officer at King World Productions Inc. King World is the leading worldwide distributor of first-run programming, including "Wheel of Fortune," "Jeopardy!" and "The Oprah Winfrey Show," the three highest-rated shows in first-run syndication.

Jules came to King World from ITC Entertainment Group, where he held the position of President and Chief Executive Officer. Prior to ITC Entertainment Group, Mr. Haimovitz was President and Chief Operating Officer of Spelling Entertainment Inc. During his tenure, Mr. Haimovitz oversaw the revitalization of Spelling's creative base through the development of such prime time television series as "Twin Peaks" and "Beverly Hills, 90210," as well as the production of feature films "Pet Semetary" and "Soapdish."

Mr. Haimovitz joined Aaron Spelling Productions following a lengthy association with Viacom International Inc. While at Viacom, Mr. Haimovitz served in various senior executive capacities including that of President of the Viacom Network Group, with responsibility for Showtime/The Movie Channel Inc., the MTV Networks Inc., Lifetime Cable Channel and Viewer Choice, Viacom's satellite pay-per-view network. Mr. Haimovitz also served as President of the Viacom Entertainment Group, with responsibility for Viacom Enterprises, Viacom Worldwide Distribution Company, Viacom Productions and Viacom's position in Orion Pictures Corp.
