InnerWorkings Ranks Fifth on Crain's Chicago Business' Fast Fifty List of Chicago's Fastest Growing Companies

CHICAGO, Jun 02, 2008 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- InnerWorkings, Inc. (NASDAQ:INWK), a leading global provider of managed print and promotional solutions to corporate clients, was recently ranked fifth in Crain's Chicago Business' Fast Fifty, a list of Chicago's fastest growing companies.

To be eligible, public and private companies in the Chicago area had to have reported five years of revenue and have at least $20 million in 2007 revenue. The 50 companies with the highest four-year percentage of revenue growth became the Crain's Chicago Business Fast Fifty. In 2007, InnerWorkings generated revenue of $288.4 million, representing four-year growth of 1,677 percent from 2003 revenue of $16.2 million.

"We are proud to be included in Crain's Chicago Business' prestigious list of accomplished, high-growth companies," said Steven E. Zuccarini, Chief Executive Officer of InnerWorkings. "Our history of profitable growth demonstrates that our value proposition as a high-service, low-cost print and promotional solutions provider is resonating in the marketplace."
