InnerWorkings Named to 2010 Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100

Company recognized as an innovator in transforming companies' print supply chains

CHICAGO, May 20, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- InnerWorkings, a leading provider of managed print and promotional solutions, announced that Supply & Demand Chain Executive Magazine named InnerWorkings to its 2010 listing of the Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100. The Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100 recognizes solution providers that are helping lead the way in transforming companies' supply and demand chains. This year the magazine focused the criteria for its "100" feature on supply chain excellence and preparing the supply chain for the post-recessionary return to growth.

"In terms of winning new clients and helping them drive efficiencies through their print supply chains, the past year has been among the best periods in InnerWorkings' history," said Jonathan Shean, Senior Vice President of Operations at InnerWorkings. "With the power of our technology and the expertise of our professionals we are redefining one of the largest and oldest industries in the world to the benefit of our clients. We are pleased to be recognized by Supply & Demand Chain Executive for excellence in the supply chain arena."

"As the economy makes tentative steps toward recovery and growth, our readers are turning to Supply & Demand Chain Executive to learn about solutions and best practices for enabling business expansion through supply chain excellence," said Andrew K. Reese, editor of Supply & Demand Chain Executive. "With this year's Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100, we highlight a broad range of supply chain solution and service providers that are helping to position their customers for the 'New Normal' economic environment."

After receiving nomination forms, the Supply & Demand Chain Executive editorial staff identified applicants that best fit the stated criteria for the "100." Final recipients are featured in the cover story of the May/June 2010 issue of Supply & Demand Chain Executive.
