InnerWorkings Named the Largest Print Distributor in North America

CHICAGO, Jul 1, 2009 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- InnerWorkings, Inc. (Nasdaq:INWK), a leading global provider of managed print and promotional solutions to corporate clients, topped the list of 2008's largest print distributors as published in the June 2009 issue of Print Solutions magazine.

InnerWorkings achieved record revenue in 2008 of $419 million, representing a 45% increase over 2007. The Company has over 650 employees and 25 locations in the U.S. and the U.K.

"Our rapid growth has been driven in large part by our print procurement technology platform which continues to improve on a daily basis," said Eric D. Belcher, Chief Executive Officer of InnerWorkings. "We are now one of the largest and most influential buyers of print in North America, with a significant portion of our business under long-term contract. We expect our growth trajectory to continue as corporations increasingly take advantage of the opportunity to outsource their print procurement function."

"I was not surprised to see InnerWorkings top this list. Since we signed over our print procurement and management, InnerWorkings has consistently generated double-digit savings and delivered exceptional quality," said Carl Musille, General Manager, Sourcing Services of The Timken Company.
