

International Wire to Participate in State of New York Energy Program

CAMDEN, N.Y., Sep 30, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- International Wire Group, Inc. (Pink Sheets: ITWG) today announced that it is a participant in an industrial incentive award program granted by the State of New York. Under this award, International Wire will have the ability to earn a discount of up to three cents per kilowatt hour on electricity rates, limited to $1.9 million per year, based on usage at its central New York plants located in Camden and Rome. The award is dependent upon the maintenance of certain employment levels. The plants involved currently employ over 300 people.

Rodney D. Kent, Chief Executive Officer of International Wire Group, Inc. said, "We are grateful to the State of New York, Governor David Paterson, New York Power Authority President and Chief Executive Officer Richard M. Kessel and Dennis Mullen of the Empire State Development Corporation for their support to keep our manufacturing plants competitive with this economic incentive."
