

eFax(R) Branded Service Expands Global Network By More Than 13% In Three Months

The global Internet fax-to-email service reports strong network growth domestically as well as internationally, now reaching 4,158 cities.

LOS ANGELES, July 21, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX News Network/ -- eFax(R), a branded service of j2 Global Communications, Inc. (NasdaqGS: JCOM) and an Internet fax to email service with millions of customers worldwide, has grown its global fax network by more than 13% since March 2010. The growth reflects a 13% increase domestically to 2,700 cities in which local fax numbers are available, and a 14% increase internationally to 1,458 cities. eFax offers free, professional, enterprise, and back-office Internet fax services and is online at <http://www.efax.com>.

The international growth reflects recent expansion in both Asia and Europe. In Asia, the company has launched a new website in Japan, accompanied by a dedicated sales and support organization, and in Europe, it has expanded its German presence with the addition of a number of new cities, including Nuremberg, Heidelberg, and Hamburg.

"The expansion of our eFax global network demonstrates the continued worldwide acceptance of Internet fax as a reliable communications medium, both for businesses and individuals," said j2 Global Communications, Inc. CEO Hemi Zucker. "This growth continues to position us well to support the demands of those in need of a reliable Internet fax service."

The eFax branded service is a pioneer in the fax business, with a string of technology and business firsts dating back to 1988. For more information on how to send or receive a fax online using eFax, or to sign up for a 30-day free trial, visit <http://www.efax.com>.
